

Residents Want New Hospital Badly; GC Hospital Says It Would Undermine Debt Retirement

The hospital wishes and needs of the Quad-City and Collinsville-Edwardsville areas continue on a possible collision course.

Many residents of the Highway 162-168 vicinity are committed to the idea of a new hospital to be operated by Christian Welfare of East St. Louis — and so far have pledged $863,328 of the $1 million goal in a public fund drive. Total cost of the planned hospital is to be $6½ million. St. Elizabeth Hospital officials are equally convinced that the available unused bed capacity of their expanded facilities — a new wing dedicated Jan. 30 — more than exceeds the size of the proposed hospital, 135 beds to a proposed 122 beds. They believe that the "competition," unknown when their expansion planning started, could jeopardize successful retirement of the remaining $11½-million debt.

Distance to a hospital in the event of illness or injury is cited as one of the advantages of construction of a new structure at Routes 162-168.

However, some health authorities describe a driving time of 15 to 20 minutes as acceptable by present-day standards and comparable to that which faces a number of hospitals in St. Louis metropolitan area.

Rapid transportation of Vietnam war wounded, greatly increased by the proliferation of small hospitals, authorities believe. They say small hospitals by their nature have less efficient use of expensive medical-surgical equipment.

Dan Hicks, Christian Welfare Hospital administrator, calls "irregular" an 8-5 vote Jan. 31 to reject the proposed hospital as not needed. The vote was by the 17-hospital Southwestern Illinois Hospital Planning Council.

The vote, to be forwarded to the Alliance for Regional Community Health (ARCH), was taken 14 months after the planning application was submitted. ARCH may take action Feb. 16.

Hicks says ARCH responsibility for review and comment expired two months after the planning Council was organized. He says the Planning Council has no official capacity for comment on the proposal.

Donald Lutz, an assistant administrator of St. Elizabeth Hospital and president of the Planning Council, agrees that the timing of the review was "very bad."

He adds that the timing is not the primary issue, but rather the question of whether a new hospital "will benefit the people of Madison County."

Lutz views sentiment for a new hospital as being principally "emotional."

He cites a report released by ARCH last year, saying that no hospital projects should be approved.

Engineering Reports On 3 Possible Sewer Plans Ready in Week

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

Engineering reports on three alternative programs for construction of sewers and provisions for sewage treatment for Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships will be submitted to the Southwestern Metropolitan Area Planning Commission and the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council by Feb. 15, it was reported today.

The reports, together with preliminary plans for building collector sewers throughout the unincorporated areas of the Quad-Cities, are being prepared by the Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab engineering firm of Granite City as representatives of the township officials directing development of the sewer program.

SIMAPC and the Gateway Council will evaluate the proposals and prepare their views and recommendations for the federal and state Environmental Protection Agencies and the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the agencies from which the township group will seek grants for the sewer construction.

The township sewer program is sponsored by Madison County and is directed by the supervisors of the four Quad-City townships—Nelson Hagnauer of Chouteau, Walter Sparks of Nameoki, and Arthur "Cooper" Moore of Venice, Walter Sparks of Chouteau and Louis Whitsell of Nameoki.

While no sewers are to be built in Granite City because the township and city boundaries are coextensive, and all sewers are under the city administration, Hagnauer will participate with the other area supervisors in the financing, engineering and construction phases of the overall township area project.

To Sewer Residential Area

The program calls for construction of collector sewers, laterals and trunklines, in the unsewered residential areas of Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships, as well as areas in which future residential and business development is projected.

Originally, the township group based its sewer planning upon the use of the Granite City sewer treatment plant. The township sewers would tie into interceptor lines that would carry sewage from the township areas to the Granite City facility for treatment.

Granite City presently is developing a $15.1 million secondary sewage treatment plant under state and federal mandates to upgrade treatment facilities by Dec. 31, 1973. The M. W. Architects-Engineers, Inc. of St. Louis, provide for construction of the interceptor lines by the city.

The township group also wanted to build the interceptors, but agreed to go along with Granite City so long as the townships were assured use of the treatment facilities for discharge of sewage from the townships.

Meanwhile, the city has encountered considerable delay in development of its program. It still must raise about 25% of the initial construction costs before it can obtain funds from federal and state agencies. A bond issue has been proposed but so far no action to sell bonds has been taken. Detailed working plans for the city's secondary treatment plant facilities and the interceptors lines are being prepared, however.

Levee District Outlook

Because of the delay, the township engineers have prepared three different programs, one of which provides for use of the Lansdowne treatment plant of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District. Under this proposal, the townships would build its own interceptor lines which would tie into the levee district main lines south of Venice.

Engineers and township officials maintain this alternative may turn out to be the most economical program for the township group.

The programs developed by the township engineers include one in which the townships would build the collector sewers and the interceptors at a cost estimated at $10 million, and another in which the townships would build the collector sewers and the interceptors at a cost estimated at $10 million, and another in which the townships would build the collector

sewers and the interceptors at a cost estimated at $10 million, and another in which the townships would build the collector

Third Levee Trustee Named; Meet This Week

A special meeting of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District board has been called for 10 a.m. Wednesday following the appointment Friday of an East St. Louis businessman as a levee district trustee.

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie named James D. Pirtle, 29, to fill the board vacancy resulting from the removal of Morris Campbell, East St. Louis, upon Campbell's conviction of a charge of stealing district funds.

Pirtle is a Republican and was one of three unsuccessful Republican candidates in a special levee board election held last year.

His appointment brings the board to three members, the minimum required for a quorum to conduct levee district business. Two other members of the normally five-man board, Joseph Grant of Granite City and George Duff of East St. Louis, died during the present term of office. The other two members are William "Mike" Ebersolt of Venice, board president, and Lawrence "Tolar" of East St. Louis.

Pirtle said his primary objective is to get the board established as a sound business practices and employees' merit system.

He said he intends to meet with representatives of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Illinois Levee Board, the levee district, and John R. Henne, executive vice-president of the St. Clair County Taxpayers' Association.

Governor Pledge Backing

Governor Ogilvie said he expects to be re-elected in April before the appointment was announced that refugees are needed within the district. The governor also was expected to have pledged full backing to Pirtle. Pirtle will serve until the end of the present board term Dec. 4.

He also is a candidate for party senator from the 57th Legislative District.

appropriation. Delay in adopting the budget because of the lack of a quorum membership has delayed, in turn, the issuance of anticipation warrants.

The district is without funds to meet the Feb. 10 and Feb. 25 payrolls amounting to approximately $54,000 and will have no money until anticipation warrants are paid.

The district cannot sell tax anticipation warrants until it approves a tax levy. The tax levy cannot be passed until after adoption of the budget and its publication.

Pirtle said he does not intend to act on the budget in Wednesday's meeting because he is not yet acquainted with district matters. A regular meeting is scheduled to follow the special meeting.

Pirtle, a lifelong resident of East St. Louis, operates three businesses—Pirtle Office Supply & Equipment Co., Pirtle Package Liquor Co., and Pirtle Variety Store.

He also is a candidate for party senator from the 57th Legislative District.

Expenditure of $80 from the Town Fund of Nameoki Township last week was assumed late Thursday by former Supervisor Harry Briggs and was defended Friday by Supervisor Douglas Teeter as being needed for office cleaning supplies.

County Board Primary Voting in 30 Precincts

Quadt voters will go to the polls tomorrow in 30 of the area's 61 voting precincts to nominate party candidates for county board memberships.

Nominees chosen in Tuesday's balloting will be subject to a runoff election April 4.

Polling places will be open at 6 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Voting returns will be reported to the office of County Clerk Eula Hotz at Edwardsville where the polls are closed.

There will be no primary balloting in 30 Quad-City precincts with 20 of the local area county board districts. These primaries were eliminated because only one Democratic candidate filed without opposition in each of the districts.

In all four instances the Democratic candidates are assumed election because no Republican candidates filed on the other side of the ballot and no Independent candidates have filed to bid for those particular posts.

Primaries Eliminated

The districts in which there will be no primary elections tomorrow include:

District 20 made up of Granite City Precincts 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 where Nelson Hagnauer, now chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, is the only candidate.

District 22 made up of Granite City Precincts 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 where Herbert Milton of Granite City is unopposed.

District 23 made up of Granite City Precincts 9, 10, 11 and 12 where John D. Maurer, incumbent assistant supervisor of Venice township is the unopposed candidate.

District 24 made up of Venice Precincts 3, 6, 7, 8 and 9, and Granite City Precincts 1, 2 and 3, where Arthur "Cooper" Moore, incumbent supervisor of Venice Township, is the only candidate.

Balloting in the Quad-City area will be conducted in 13 Granite City precincts, 11 Nameoki township precincts and six of Chouteau Township's seven precincts. These precincts make up five county board districts in which opposition has developed on the Democratic ballot.

Whitsell, Patrick Fight

These include a spirited campaign in District 26 in which Louis Whitsell, incumbent Nameoki township supervisor, is opposed by Edgar Patrick, township collector. Whitsell and Patrick formerly were political associates and were first elected to township offices on the same ticket. Political differences since have led to a split between the two officials.

District 26 in which Whitsell and Patrick are bidding for the one county board seat, is made up of Nameoki Precincts 1, 5, 6, 8, 9 and 11, and Precinct 10 of Collinsville Township.

In Chouteau Township, incumbent Supervisor W. A. Sparks is opposed on the Democratic ballot by Albert E. Doerr of South Roxana. They are candidates for the nomination to the District 16 board membership. District 16 is made up of Chouteau Precincts 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 7 and Precinct 3 of Nameoki Township.

The winner of this race will be opposed in the April 4 runoff election by James Greer Jr. of Mitchell, an 18-year-old SIU-SW student who has filed as an Independent candidate. Independents are not subject to the primary and will be on the ballot only in the runoff election.

Incumbents Competing

Two incumbent assistant supervisors of Granite City are opposing one another for the Democratic board nomination in District 19, made up of Granite City Precincts 16, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26.

They are William Webb, now serving his 21st year on the county board of supervisors, and Ford G. Johnson who has been on the county board about a year and a half.

Two other incumbent assistant supervisors—Carl Roach and Carl V. Buehler, both of Granite City, are competing for the Democratic board nomination in District 21 which encompasses Granite City Precincts 11, 13, 14, 17 and 28.

Homer Boothman of State Park, Illinois, and David L. Huckle of Bond Road, an incumbent assistant supervisor of Nameoki Township, are contenders for the District 25 board seat. That district includes precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61.

precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61.

NEWS NOTES

Scott Campaigns Here

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott, currently seeking re-election, campaigned in Granite City late Friday afternoon and then gave a non-political talk to Masons of Lodges 877 and 835 Friday night at the Masonic Temple.

He described anti-pollution and consumer fraud programs and said he has tried to serve as "the people's lawyer." He also attended a reception at the home of Mike Petrosian, 2650 Cleveland Blvd.

Earlier Friday, he dedicated a full-scale regional branch of his office in East St. Louis to serve the southwestern area of the state.

Sister Mary Cornelia Hawkins, a nun known nationally as "Sister Fuzz," due to her work on the Ponton Beach police department has been transferred to duties outside of the state, church officials said Friday. She has just finished a hospital stay to pneumonia.

A pre-election day case in which three disorderly conduct warrants were issued at 11:45 a.m. today named Louis Whitsell and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Singer of the Ponton Beach area as having annoyed Debra Terry, 19, of Ponton Beach by following her in an auto at 1:30 a.m. Sunday. Mrs. Singer, who is backing Whitsell in primary voting tomorrow, said "I've never seen the woman" and asked the charges unfounded.

MORE ABOUT

New Hospital

proved in this metropolitan area before 1975.

In expanding to 400-bed capacity, St. Elizabeth Hospital needs to increase its occupancy by 31,000 patient-days a year over last year's rate in order to meet debt service requirements, Lenz says, adding that occupancy declined by 5,600 patient-days in 1971 compared to 1970.

Even successful in raising its occupancy by 31,000, St. Elizabeth Hospital will still have an occupancy of only 65%, instead of the 85% considered ideal, Lenz reports; an 85% level is projected by 1975. All projections assumed there would be no Edwardsville-Colonialville area hospital. Lenz says the 14-month delay on the proposed hospital application occurred because the ARCH-Planning Council relationship was unofficial until April 1971 and because ARCH did not ask for a report until late December 1971.

Mrs. Dan Walker Visits Here; Guest at Reception

A reception honoring Mrs. Dan (Roberta) Walker, wife of the Independent Democratic gubernatorial candidate, was given Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen in their home, 2623 Delmar Ave. Mrs. Walker returned to her home Saturday night after a six-day campaign tour of southern Illinois last week, in which she traced the route of her husband's 1197 mile campaign walk through the state.

The trip was planned by Mrs. Walker to thank those people who opened their homes to her husband for dinner and overnight lodging. She also attended luncheons, coffees and teas and met with local media leaders.

The Walker family moved in 1987 to Deerfield, Ill. where they still reside. Each of their seven children will assist in the campaign.

Kathleen Walker, 24, is an account assistant for the Bank of America in San Francisco, Calif. and is expected to arrive home Thursday to do her part of the campaign.

Other children in the family include Dan Jr., 23, a first-year law student at Northwestern University; Julie, 21, a senior at Loretto Heights in Denver;

MRS. DAN WALKER

Robbie, 19, a sophomore at the University of Denver; Charles, 17, a senior at Loyola Academy; Margaret, a fifth grader, and Will, a third grader, both at Holy Cross Elementary School. Accompanying Mrs. Walker on the first of several trips is Mrs. Phyllis Lehman of Chicago and an advance agent, Richard Block also of Chicago.

Band Room Theft at Madison Junior High

Band instruments with an estimated value of $2,000 were stolen last week from the band room at Madison Junior High School, Earl S. McClanahan, principal, reported at 2 p.m. Friday.

Exact time of the theft has not yet been determined. The police report indicated, however, the instruments were taken between 6:30 and 7 p.m. Thursday, when a custodian at the school found the south door to the gymnasium and the band room door open.

Individual students reporting their instruments taken in the burglary were Mark Liszewski, 1907 Rhodes St., a cornet in a leather case, valued at $500; Kathy Niedhardt, 1889 Second St., clarinet, valued at $200; Paul Hill, 2029 Alton Ave., clarinet, $200; Rosann Hall, 1919 Rhodes St., clarinet, $200; Michelle Clark, 900 McCambridge Ave., clarinet, $100.

No value was listed for missing instruments owned by Jeff Skinner, cornet; Thomas Jones, 1713 Rhodes St., cornet; and Tina Topa, a clarinet.

Also stolen were two tenor saxophones, bass and also clarinet and a bassoon.

Two Hurt in Accident; Recklessness Charged

Charles B. Ellsworth, 31, of 4903 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with reckless driving after the auto he was operating collided with a car driven by Mrs. Martha C. Satter, 28, of 1643 E. 2nd St. (122 Holiday Park) at 6:30 p.m. Saturday on Nameoki Road near East 25th Street.

Police said that Mrs. Satter, who was admitted for observation at St. Elizabeth Hospital, was waiting to make a left turn into the Kirkpatrick Homes housing project when her car was hit on the left rear by Ellsworth's northbound vehicle. Ellsworth also sustained minor injuries, police said.

Willow Walk Cats Take Championship Honors

Several top awards were won by cats owned by Mrs. David D. Taylor of the Willow Walk Cattery in Mitchell and Mrs. Jeany Pulliam of Route 3, Mitchell, whose felines were among more than 300 entries in the 31st annual cat show, sponsored by the Greater St. Louis Cat Club.

Both women are members of the St. Louis-based club, and were instrumental in the show being staged on the Illinois side of the state region for the first time in its three-decade history. The event took place in the Belleclair Fairgrounds in Belleville.

Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Pulliam also successfully sponsored a request from the Quad-Cities Association for the Protection of Animals to set up a free adoption booth at the show.

The humane group is permitted to offer animals each year. All but two of the homeless cats and kittens displayed were adopted by show patrons; it was learned.

Most entries in the annual event came from the midwestern states. However, several were entered from New York, Texas, Florida and Kentucky. The four presiding judges represented California, Utah, New Jersey and Louisiana.

In the championship class,

Harold Kita, 3304 Kirkpatrick; Jack LeMaster, 2103 Missouri; Rosser McCree, 2409 Washington; Ruth Purkey, 502 Kirkpatrick; John Greco, 2012 Collinsville, Madison; Mary Jane Hilt, Primrose; Michael Hall, 2906 Victory Drive; Frank Ortiz, Collinsville; Ronald Nelson, 3005 E. 3rd.

Giacoletto-Myracle Nuptials In St. Louis

Miss Ruth Ann Myracle and Dan Marcus Giacioletto exchanged wedding vows in a late afternoon ceremony Saturday at the Lindbergh Assembly of God Church in St. Louis.

The church was decorated with floral arrangements in pink, burgundy and white. The Rev. Gene Putnam performed the double ring ceremony at 4:30 o'clock.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Myracle Jr., 2820 Grand Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Giacioletto of Arnold, Mo.

Dennis Myracle, a brother of the bride, sang "The Wedding Prayer," prior to the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown designed in Victorian style of candlelit satin. Delicate old fashioned lace, re-embroidered with tiny pearls, formed the yoke bodice and high neckline. The full long sleeves were gathered at the wrists into wide cuffs edged with a single row of lace. A self fabric bow secured the detachable chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil was held in place with a flat double bow, and she carried a Victorian bouquet of pink carnations, red roses and white baby breath. Miss Nina Teague, maid of honor, and Miss Debra Bretsch, Mrs. Kerry Edwards, both cousins of the bride and Mrs. Roseanna Myracle, the bride's sister-in-law, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of Cardinal red velvet.

They were Victorian in style with a high waist and leg-of-mutton sleeves trimmed with a band of wide lace. Each wore a nose tip veil secured with a circle of velvet ribbon. They carried a single red rose, the long stems sheathed in velvet and lace.

Two little flower girls, Chantel Scheidter and Vicki Worth, sisters of the groom, wore pink dresses similar in design to the bridesmaids' gowns. Each held a basket of rose petals.

David Worth, the groom's nephew, was ringbearer.

The bridegroom selected his brother, Tony Giacioletto, as best man. Dennis Myracle, a brother of the bride, was usher. Blake, John Kirkpatrick, Jim Steers and Dan Schneider, the bride's cousins, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Both mothers wore formal long gowns. Mrs. Myracle was attired in a red velvet dress, complemented with silver accessories, and a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses. Mrs. Giacioletto chose a gold brocade gown and matching accessories. She wore yellow Sweetheart roses, made up in a corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church fellowship hall, with Miss Wendy Schneider, a cousin of the bride, attending the guest book.

The former Miss Myracle, a graduate of Granite City High School, was employed at Rave-nell's Restaurant. Mr. Giacioletto is attending Forest Park Community College, St. Louis, where he is majoring in hotel-motel and restaurant management. He is a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

The newly married couple will make their home in St. Louis.

Out-of-town guests included Tony Giacioletto of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bretsch of Cape Girardeau, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens of Urbana, Ill.

FEBRUARY BRIDE. Mrs. Dan Marcus Giacioletto, the former Miss Ruth Ann Myracle, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Myracle Jr., 2820 Grand Ave., who was married at the Lindbergh Assembly of God Church in St. Louis.

Miss Deborah Rhoads Marries James Dillon

Miss Deborah Pauline Rhoads and James Leon Dillon were united in marriage Saturday at noon at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon B. Rhoads, 1830 Market St., Madison, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Dillon, 1300 Rhodes St., Granite City.

The Rev. Sylvester Micko officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with bouquets of white gladioli, "mums, pom poms and greenery."

Roy Hill, soloist, sang the "Wedding Prayer" and "If I Could Tell You," accompanied by Mrs. Helen McGarrahan at the organ.

The bride was escorted down the white-carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father.

She was attired in a gown of pale de sole fashioned with the Empire waistline. The oval neckline was encircled with Chantilly lace which continued down the front of the dress, forming loops of lace around the skirt, with tiny flat bows at the waist and on top of each loop.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pat Welle, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Connie Davis, cousin of the bride. Colleen Koeck, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They chose full-length gowns fashioned with pale pink bodices and open pointed collars. There were long sleeves with wide cuffs and tiny covered buttons added interest to the front of each bodice. The skirts were made of ruby red velvet.

Headpieces of pink satin bows with short veils were worn by three of the attendants. The junior bridesmaid wore a pink satin bow in her hair.

Colonial bouquets of white Sweetheart roses and pink carnations were carried.

Michael DeYong, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The groom chose Michael Nizinski as best man. Groomsmen were Robert Fouts, brother-in-law of the bride, and Michael Dillon, brother of the groom. Charles Volok, cousin of the bride, and Larry Welle, brother-in-law of the groom, seated the guests.

The reception was held at 6 p.m. at the Madison Fireman's Hall.

The young couple will reside in Madison upon returning from a wedding trip.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Madison High School.

Mrs. Dillon, the former Miss Rhoads, attended SIU-SW prior to working at the circuit clerk office in Granite City. Mr. Dillon is employed at the W. W. Granger Co. in St. Louis.

Mrs. Rhoads, mother of the bride, wore a pink princess-style gown with long, puffed sleeves, cuffed tightly with matching lace at the wrist, and

Miss Sharon Roulund, James Provinse Are Wed

Miss Sharon Lee Roulund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Roulund, 2153 Dawn Place, became the bride of James M. Provinse, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Provinse, 2114 Vorhof Drive, St. Louis, in a double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Saturday, at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Roy L. Baugh, pastor, read the marriage vows before an altar holding vases of snapdragons and gladioli accented with greenery. Tall standards of lighted candelabra were framed with Emerald trees.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Russell West, organist, gave a recital of wedding music and accompanied Paul Mabrey, soloist, who sang "Walk Hand In Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of candlelight ivory delustrated satin. The Empire bodice of peau d'ange lace motifs, etched with pearls and bugle beads, featured a sheer yoke and high neckline.

The jeweled motifs extended to the top of the duchess sleeves that were tightly cuffed with miniature buttons. Tracing the sides of the A-line gown were matching jeweled motifs which continued to a border of scalloped lace and pearls. A full sweep detachable train cascaded gracefully from the back waistline was bordered with lace motifs.

A tiered veil of bridal illusion was secured with a lace and pearl camelot headpiece of de-lustrated ivory satin and she carried a train of white roses, baby breath and leather fern greenery. The Bible was a gift from Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson.

Attendants were Mrs. Jon

Fisher of Charleston, Ill., matron of honor; and Miss Jeanne Poole, a college friend from Springfield, Ill., and Miss Joan Provinse, a sister of the groom, bridesmaids.

They wore identical Juliet gowns of dark green velvet green chiffon. The dark green bodices featured a scoop neckline, edged with floral motifs, and velvet lacing accented long sleeves of chiffon and the billowy chiffon skirts.

Each attendant wore a dark green velvet choker centered with a jade and gold filigree pin and carried a single long stemmed yellow rose festooned with green velvet streamers.

Little Elizabeth Wilson, the flower girl, wore a full length frock styled similar to the attendants' gowns and a velvet bow headpiece. She carried a white basket filled with yellow roses and greenery.

The groom chose Dennis Don-ey of St. Louis as his best man and Gary Creason of Springfield, Ill., and David Roulund, a brother of the bride, as groomsmen.

Jon Fisher and Ed Cook served as ushers and Eric Wilson was ringbearer. Kevin and Kyle Cook, cousins of the bride, were candelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Roulund wore a high waisted A-line dress of mint green silk and white lace. Provinse, the groom's mother, selected a costume of ivory colored sari cloth embroidered with gold and bitersse. Both wore corsages of golden roses.

A reception for wedding guests was given immediately following the ceremony in Wesley Hall at the church.

Miss Barbara Williams and Miss Carol Worn assisted in the reception table and Miss Jan Provinse, a sister of the groom, presided over the guest book.

Skater Performs For Minerva Club

The Minerva Women's Club held at Wilson Park Ice rink Thursday evening to watch a figure skating demonstration by Maureen Hayes, a junior at Granite City High School.

Miss Hayes had received a scholarship from the club to attend a two-week school of ice skating last week.

The GCHS student displayed several individual skating accomplishments and presented a program routine to music.

The club members then attended a business meeting in the home of Mrs. Helen Peterson, 3111 Colgate Place. Plans were completed for a husband's night party, to be held Saturday in the home of Mrs. Mary Tarpol.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Velma Gruen who discussed the "Mothers-To-Mothers" program, as newly organized group of the First Baptist Church who aid indigent or divorced women with families.

Mrs. Peterson served refreshments to 12 members to conclude the meeting.

The cathedral veil of bridal illusion was edged with Chantilly lace.

She carried a Victorian portrait Colonial bouquet of white roses intermingled with pink Sweet heart roses.

Mrs. Robert Fouts, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, dress with a scalloped bodice and lace collar and long full sleeves of embroidered lace with wide cuffs were complemented with beige accessories.

A pink-tipped carnation corsage was worn.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Dillon, chose an aqua blue, princess-style dress designed on Empire lines. She had white accessories and a blue-tipped carnation corsage.

The grandmothers wore white carnation corsages.

Ex-Drug Addict to Lead Calvary Crusade

Jack Hazelwood, ex-football player and former drug addict, sometimes called the "hippie evangelist," will present a crusade at Calvary Baptist Church, 3000 Washington Ave., the week of Feb. 20-27. Services each evening will start at 7:30.

Hazelwood spends most of his time, nowadays, trying to turn young people off from the idea that drugs are "cool and groovy" and get them to understand his message that the true way to spiritual happiness is through belief in Christ.

During speaking engagements before young people, the 27-year-old Hazelwood emphasizes the evils of drugs by relating some of his own experiences and those of drug addicts he has met since barnstorming the country as a working evangelist. He also heads a non profit group dedicated to educating the young about narcotics and drugs.

Hooked In High School
The ex-drug addict "got hooked" on drugs when he was a senior at a Houston, Texas, high school. "I lost chances at two football scholarships because I thought it was real cool to shoot heroin," he said.

He considers himself fortunate as he never got to the point of being institutionalized. "I was able to withdraw from drugs, with the help of some friends," Hazelwood added. In recent speeches, the evangelist told young people that sniffing glue would bring about the same result. The use of glue blocks oxygen from the brain and causes cells to deteriorate, he noted.

50,000 Died
Over 50,000 persons died in the United States last year from overdoses of drugs, Hazelwood said, adding that the figure is about the same number killed in the Vietnam war.

"But I wonder how many young people would get out and demonstrate against the 50,000 dead from drugs, as they have against the Vietnam casualties,"

Although he uses the salutation "Jesus loves you" when he meets the young, Hazelwood is not "stuffy" in any sense and has an overwhelming response from students, crusade organizers reported.

Speaking at different schools and colleges across the country he describes his own days as a curious but cocky and carefree high school student. Always he stresses the permanent damage that can and frequently results from drug use.

"You should enjoy every minute of your school days. The best way to be cool and groovy is to have respect for your person and avoid the use of drugs."

You can spend the rest of your lives paying for the cheap thrills of a few moments," Hazelwood tells students at almost every gathering.

Pack 13 Annual Banquet Feb. 27

Plans for the annual "Blue and Gold" Banquet of Cub Pack 13 were announced at a special meeting held Thursday night in the St. Elizabeth school cafeteria. Cubmaster Francis Rozycki was in charge.

Mrs. Delores Schrenk, banquet chairman, reported the event will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 27 in the school cafeteria. Awards, pins and announcements will be made at this time.

Also discussed were plans for a bowling banquet at Brunswick 11 Mor Bowl for parents of Pack 13 cub scouts. Mrs. Delores Hay was named chairman and will announce the date at a future meeting. All proceeds from the dinner will go to the pack fund, she said.

Ed Heinz, chairman of a recent chili supper, submitted a final report, and Joe Kryzsko, assistant cubmaster, announced the pack's "Pinewood Derby" event will take place at the April pack meeting. A skating party was scheduled for March 29, from 6 to 8 p.m., at the Stardust Roller Rink.

Attending the planning session in addition to those named were George Petrunich, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Venclo, Mrs. Nancy Graf, Mrs. Delores Schrenk, Mrs. Sharon Kostoff, Mrs. Carol Kessler and Mrs. Barbara Duffin.

'Three Cuckolds' Play at SIU-SW

"The Three Cuckolds," adapted by Leon Katz, and directed by Leslie Branham, will be presented at the Southern Illinois University Theater at the southwestern campus, Monday through Saturday, Feb. 21-26. All performances start at 8:15 p.m.

The public is invited, admission free. Information and reservations can be obtained by calling 1-892-2775, according to William W. Vilhauer, University Theater director. The play is about Arlecchino, a harlequin type character, who stumbles upon the domestic and amorous affairs of three married couples. The affairs are complicated by the madcap Arlecchino and resolved by the romantic Leandro.

GABRIEL SHRINE 78 TO HONOR BROTHERS

The "brothers" will be the honored guests and fill the officers' stations at a meeting of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem to be held Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Mary Lou Simmons, worthy high priestess and John DeHart, watchman of shepherds, will conduct the meeting.

MRS. ANTHONY WORCESTER, the former Miss Lois Kutzer, who was married Saturday at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kutzer of Madison.

Lois Kutzer Becomes Mrs. Anthony Worcester

The groom chose his brother, John Worcester, as best man. Another brother, Robert Worcester and Harvey Gammon were groomsmen. Seating the guests were Sam Shambro, the bride's brother-in-law and Albert Sirko, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Kutzer selected a bonded crepe coat and dress ensemble of seaford green, with matching trim and accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.

The groom's mother was attended in a purple velvet dress, with accessories in a matching shade. She wore a wristlet of miniature white roses.

A reception for guests was given at the Polish Hall in Madison.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Sam Shambro, entertained members of the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening in her home, 2400 Waterman Ave.

After a wedding trip to Pittsburgh, Pa., the newly married couple will make their home in Beaver, Pa.

The former Miss Kutzer graduated from St. Louis University and was employed at the Memorial Hospital in Springfield, Ill., as a physical therapist.

Mr. Worcester is a graduate of Colorado School of Mines. He is employed as a technical consultant with St. Joseph's Minerals, Monaca, Pa.

Mrs. Robert Wilson, mother of the groom, and Mrs. Paul Webb and Miss Jan Betine, bridesmaids, wore identical frocks of red velvet.

Fashioned in Empire style, the waistlines of their gowns were encircled with white lace and they wore a white fur headband and carried white muffs.

Mary Jo Nelson, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress similar to the attendants. Kenneth Shambro, a nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer.

Venice Sneaks by Madison 60-57: Both Teams Lose On the Road Saturday

The Venice High School Red Devils sneaked by the Trojans Friday at Madison 60-57 in a neighboring basketball battle. Venice then lost an overtime game to St. Paul at Highland 76-74 while the Trojans lost at Collinsville 80-75 in Saturday night games.

The Devils had a first quarter lead 10-9 and a half time edge of 20-25 over Madison. The Trojans came back to outscore the Devils in the third quarter 18-12 to take the lead at 43-41, but it was short-lived as Venice took the final stanza 19-14.

Venice led in field goals 23-21 and Madison held a 15-14 edge in charity tosses. The Devils committed 20 personal fouls, the Trojans 19.

Venice kept the pressure on Madison's Ed Chandler who tagged only three field goals. The Trojans were kept in the game by Vernell and Roger Glasper and Anthony Matthews who each scored 12 points.

Other Trojans scoring were Terrance Young 9 and Jerry Belford 6.

Algie Smith led the attack for the Devils with 19 points, followed by Ben Henry with 11. Dan Severs and Jim Ohlendorf 8 each, Dan Maurer 6, and Cornelius Wiley and Ray Mosby each four.

Madison traveled to Collinsville Saturday and lost despite 34 points bucketed by Yegor, The Chandler, again under pressure, could only garner 10. Belford scored 13 and Matthews had 12 to keep the Trojan hopes alive.

BOXED IN, but getting off a shot, is Trojan Ed Chandler who was held to six points during the Madison-Venice cage tilt Friday. Moving in to complete the tie up is Jim Ohlendorf (51) and Cornelius Wiley (43). Venice won 60-57.

Madison led at the intermission 38-35 but fell behind by 15 points in the fourth quarter. The Trojans came alive and with 10 seconds to go were only down three points but a foul spoiled the comeback.

The Trojans are now 6-11 with a game at Central in St. Louis Tuesday beginning at 4 p.m.

Venice led at Highland 41-32 at the half, but at the end of regulation play it was 17-17.

Algie Smith gave the Devils a short-lived three-point lead with a charity toss and a field goal, but Venice turned the ball over and committed two charging fouls to drop the game.

"We played a good game against St. Paul, but we just made a few too many mistakes," Bill Ohlendorf, cage coach for Venice, said.

"St. Paul has always had a good club and they did a good job on the court. I hate to lose a ball game but the team did play well."

Venice is now 8-8 and travels to Red Bud for a game at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Warrior Wrestlers Rule the Mats at Conference Tourney

Granite City High School wrestlers, fresh from completing an undefeated dual meet season, handily won their 14th Southwestern Conference title at Alton Saturday.

The Warriors accumulated 114½ while allowing second-place Alton 46. Other scores were Edwardsville 44½, East St. Louis 38½, Belleville West 37½, and Collinsville 6.

Of the 12 Warrior matmen, eight earned championships in their weight class, three were runners-up and one earned a third. East St. Louis, Belleville West, Alton and Edwardsville each claimed one championship.

8 Champions
Champions were Harry Miller (112), Kerry Johnson (119), Kevin Niebu (126), Dennis Ragan (132), Doug Wilson (138), Jack Schooley (167), Tom Kalert (185) and Craig Stephens (heavyweight). All were top seedings, giving them byes in the first round.

Miller sailed by Belleville with a 2-1 win and Edwardsville 2-1 in the finals after downing his Alton opponent 2-1 in the previous round.

Niebu earned 12-1 and 7-5 decisions over Edwardsville and Alton, Ragan won 10-0 and 8-2 decisions against East St. Louis and Belleville West. Wilson downed Edwardsville 9-4 and pinned East St. Louis in 2:32. Schooley had 9-0 and 11-6 decisions over Collinsville and Edwardsville. Kalert downed East St. Louis with a fall in 4:44 and Alton on a 4-2 decision and

4 GC Swimmers Earn 8 Ribbons

In an AAU-sanctioned "B" swim meet at the Belleville YMCA, four Granite City youngsters competing with the East St. Louis "Y" team carried a total of eight ribbons. The contest held Saturday and Sunday was restricted to swimmers who met qualifying times in "B" division competition.

Winning three ribbons was Debbie Griffin, 11-12 years, who earned a first place in the 50-yd. backstroke, second, 50-yd. butterfly and fifth, 50-yd. freestyle.

In the 9-10 division, Scott Bueger took a third in 50-yard breaststroke; Ken Jolly, 11-12, won a third in 50-yard breaststroke and a fifth in the medley relay event; and Mark Becherer captured two third-place awards in the medley and free style-relay races.

6 'Y' Swimmers Win Awards

Six members of the local YMCA swim team won trophies and ribbons at an 18-team event Saturday and Sunday at Belleville.

Shannon Stocker (11-12) first-place trophy, 50-yard free style; Kelly Mann (9-10) first place trophy, 50-yard back, and sixth place ribbon, 200-yard; Bob Mann (9-10), first-place trophy, 50-yard breast, and second-place trophy, 50-yard fly.

Mike Bagger (13-14), first-place trophy, 200-yard free, and fourth-place ribbon, 100-yard back; Gaville Schumacher (12-14), third-place trophy, 100-yard free and sixth-place ribbon, 200-yard; and Debby Barnes (11-12), sixth-place ribbon, 50-yard breast.

Other local competitors were Becky Barnes, Kathy Baggot, Steve Fernandez, Laura Mann, Connie Hein, Pam and Charlie Pollach and Erin Stocker.

Cougar Cagers Drop 2 More at Kansas City

The basketball, Cougars of SIU-SW took it on the chin twice during the weekend at Kansas City, losing to Rockhurst 100-84 Friday night and to the University of Missouri-Kansas City 92-85 Saturday.

The losses set the Cougar record back to 3-16 for the season.

Rockhurst out-paced the Cougars all the way on the strength of a record-breaking 34 points by Jim Koop who bucketed 30 of them in the first half to give the winners a 56 lead at the intermission.

Tony Johnson led SIU-SW with 20 points, followed by Gene Bounds and Terry Fraley with 10 each, Frank Ramsey 9, Thurman Ferrer 8, Denny

Throneburg and Dave James 6 each, Sam Holmes 5, Steve Hutchison 4, and Jerry Blaudrow, Roy Withroft and Ward 2 each.

Rockhurst outshot the Cougars 44 to 34 from the field.

The Cougars jumped to a 50-39 half-time lead against UMKC but were unable to hold it as Missouri went ahead 67-65 with 7:33 left in the game.

Missouri's Mark Augustus took scoring honors with 29 points while SIU-SW was led by Throneburg with 24 points, Jerry Blomer with 18, Holmes and Fraley 14.

The Cougars will meet the University of Missouri-St. Louis at 8 p.m. Wednesday across the river and Bethel College in a home game at 8 p.m. Friday.

Venice G5 Cagers Conference Champs

The Venice Grade School basketball team won the Tri-County Conference Championship by defeating Bethalto 46-37 Friday.

Venice downed Wood River 60-58 Thursday. Bethalto came in second and Wood River third. Other schools in action were Southwestern Plaza, Jerseyville and East Alton.

Starting five for the champions are James Crowder, Reggie Gardner, Richard Bailey, Robert Killian and James Turner.

The Venice team is coached by Bill Jones.

Braves Favorites to Earn City Mar Title

Undeclared Coolidge Junior High School is heavily favored to win the annual city Junior wrestling tournament at 6 p.m. tomorrow at Granite City High School although both opponents, Prather and Grigsby, boast of several fine matmen who could break holes in the Braves line. Thirteen champions are to be crowned.

Cougar Matmen Upset By Central

Southern Illinois University-Southwestern's wrestling team was the victim of an upset Thursday at Warrensburg, Mo., when Central Missouri State turned back the Cougar mat team, 22-16. SIU-SW is now 4-1 for the season and CMS 8-2.

The meet was tied, 16-16, going into the final heavyweight match between SIU-SW's Jeff Hines and Central's Ernie Harris. Harris won on a pin at 5:39.

Coach Larry Kristoff of SIU-SW, still having problems fielding a man in the 119-pound division, was forced to hand Central six points in that event on a forfeit in the scheduled opening match.

Larry Pruitt of St. Louis Northwest High cut SIU-SW's deficit to 6-3 when he defeated Central's Jim Blackmon in the 126-pound event. Jan Gitcho tied it up at 5-5 with a victory over the Mules' Willie Banks in the 126-pound match. Gitcho is a senior from Granite City.

The Cougar mat team had defeated a very strong Western Illinois University club two weeks ago, 24-16, while Central had lost to Western on Jan. 22 by a 27-11 score.

Dan Comegys put the Mules ahead, 8-4, by deciding the Cougar's Tom Eaton in the 142-pound division. Mike Taylor, SIU-SW's standout from St. Louis' Vashon High in the 150 event, tied it with a victory over Central's Ray Stockdale. Stockdale was 14-4 for the season and Taylor is undefeated in five dual meets. Randy Hughall put the Warrensburg school back in the lead, 12-9, as he decided Dave Cross at 158 pounds.

Perry Allison, former Roxana

High star, tied it for SIU-SW by taking a decision from Reggie Ragland at 167 pounds. Steve Bradley of SIU-SW then lost to Central's Duane Fritchle at 177 and the Mules picked up four points to make the score 16-12. Central. The Cougars' star at 190 pounds, Bob Underwood, evened it by deciding Central's Gary Simpson. Then Harris of Central pinned SIU-SW's Jeff Hines for the Mules' victory margin.

SIU-SW's next home match will be Wednesday night (Feb. 9) against the MacMurgoy College Highlanders.

People Moving Ahead

That's what banking's all about!

We're not saying that everything in life boils down to money considerations. We are saying that a great deal about banking boils right down to people having the money to Move Ahead and live.

And we want you to move ahead. To fix up your home, or buy a new one because you saw the one you want and you want it now. And why not go home and see your parents twice this year—or take an extra vacation—or just have a big party and laugh a little—or a little party and laugh a lot. LIVE!

We're not saying Spend, Spend, Spend. We're saying live. Treat yourself to life.

The part of Moving Ahead and living that boils right down to money is what we're here for. We're also here to offer you our services—our advice—our interest—in you as a person.

Warriors Split Loop Tilts, Down Edwardsville 76-69, Bow at East Side by 55-50

The Granite City High School case Warriors split two Southwestern Conference games over the weekend, beating Edwardsville here Saturday 76-69 and losing at East St. Louis Friday 55-50.

Some sort of free-throw record must have been set in Saturday's game. Terry Ripka missed the first charity toss of the evening, and then the team hit 22 straight for a 90% average. Ripka tagged 12 straight from the charity line.

The deadly aim of the Warriors from the free throw line was the winning factor. Edwardsville led in field goals 22-27 but made only five free throws.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 8 Mon., Feb. 7, 1972

Ripka led the Warrior attack with 32 points, followed by Joe Wallace and Kevin Dyer with 14 each, Tom Vrenick 10 and Bob Wiggins six.

Edwardsville took a first quarter lead of 15-13 but lost it at the half 37-26. The Warriors were outscored 24-16 in the third quarter, but managed to hold on.

At East St. Louis the Warriors took a first quarter lead of 17-9 but then sagged.

The score went to the Flyers 28-28 at halftime and 45-40 at the end of the third quarter.

The Flyers played a three zone defense which held Ripka to 16 points.

Other Warriors scoring against East St. Louis were Wallace 14, Vrenick 8, and Wiggins, Dyer and Chuck Kraus 4 each.

The Flyers tagged 23 field goals and nine charity tosses while Granite City had 22 from the floor and six from the line. The Warriors committed 14 personal fouls and the Flyers eight. East St. Louis dominated the backboards 41-28. Dyer pulled 12 off the boards for the Warriors.

The split gives the Warriors a 5-4 conference record and 13-6 overall.

Madison will travel to GCHS for a non-conference tilt Friday at 8:15 p.m.

The Warriors next conference game will be at Alton on Feb. 18.

Limited Tax Deduction for Babysitter Costs

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q I'm a working mother. What are the limits on the deduction my husband and I may claim for baby sitting expenses incurred while I am working?

A The child care deduction for tax year 1971 is limited to the amount you actually spent, but in no case more than $600 for one dependent or $900 for two or more.

Although there are no income limitations on the amount a single woman may earn and still be able to claim a child care deduction, a working wife generally must reduce such expenses by the amount the adjusted gross income of her and her husband exceeds $8,000.

Thus, no child care deduction may be allowed if the parents' combined adjusted gross income is $8,000 or more.

The rules for claiming the deduction are explained in Publication 503, "Child Care and Dependent Care," available free from IRS offices.

The Revenue Act of 1971 increased the income limitation to $18,000 for tax year 1972, so if you do not qualify for the child care deduction when you file this year, you should still maintain good records of your child care expenses, because you may qualify when you file next year.

Q Where can I get information on tax law changes affecting my 1971 return?

A Internal Revenue Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax," describes in easy-to-read language all the tax law changes affecting your 1971 return. It can be purchased for 75 cents from your IRS district office, many post offices throughout the country and the Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C.

Q What happened to the income tax surcharge?

A The surcharge was eliminated for tax years beginning in 1972.

Q Is it true that the Internal Revenue Service will compute my retirement income credit for me?

A If you qualify to have the IRS compute your tax and choose to do so, the IRS will also figure your retirement income credit.

You merely need to answer the question for Columns A and B and fill in lines 2 and 5 of Schedule R.

Attach Schedule R to your Form 1040, enter "RIC" on line 2 of Form 1040 and mail to the appropriate Service Center.

Q What taxes can I deduct on my return?

A If you itemize deductions, then your state and local income taxes, personal property, real estate, general sales and state and local gasoline taxes may be deducted.

List these on Schedule A of your return.

You can use the sales and gasoline tax tables in your tax return instructions to determine your deductions for these taxes.

Federal taxes such as Social Security tax or those on alcohol or tobacco are not deductible. Hunting licenses, driver's licenses or auto inspection fees are also not deductible.

Q I'll be filing an income tax return for the first time. Where can I get a Form 1040?

A Call or stop in at your local IRS office.

Tax forms are also available at many banks and post offices.

Q I want to deduct the interest I paid on my department store charge account purchases, but all my statements show are the "finance charges."

A There is no way you can figure out the interest?

A The amount of the finance charges which constitutes interest can be deducted. Interest has been defined as money paid for the use of money.

However, if the interest cannot be ascertained, a deduction for the lesser of 6% of the average unpaid monthly balance on your charge account or the total finance charge allocable to the year may be taken.

IRS Publication 545, Income Tax Deduction for Interest Expense, shows these methods of computing your interest deductions.

It is available free from IRS district offices.

sewers and Granite City would build the interceptors.

Engineers note that under this master plan, the cost to the township of building only the collector sewers is estimated at $7.6 million, but that another $3.4 million would be spent by Granite City to build the interceptors. Since the township would provide virtually all of the interceptor costs to the city in return for use of Granite City treatment facilities, the township group points out that its cost for this particular plan is about $13 million.

The alternative program, on the other hand, would include construction of collector sewers and interceptors by the township at a cost of about $8 million, which is the smallest in cost of any of the three programs.

KNIT DRESS SHIRTS—POPULAR MALE FASHION

Knit dress shirts for men have moved from fad to accepted fashion. The general acceptance of knit slacks and jackets eliminated the need to "sell" male customers on the comfort of knit shirts.

Warp knit fabric was used for the successful debut of the knit dress shirt. The particular type of construction provided the needed characteristics.

In warp knits the yarns zigzag in a generally vertical direction. Since fabrics are non-curling, non-sagging, and non-bagging. In addition, the fabric meets the need for adequate stretching and recovery. For example, a tricot is constructed by the warp process.

Also appearing on the fashion scene are single-knit dress shirts. Before such knits were acceptable for the shirt market, modifications were necessary to eliminate shrinkage, abrasion wear and pilling problems.

The popular doubleknits are not now competing for the dress shirt market. Manufacturers will need to produce a finer gauge, lighter-weight doubleknit to be competitive with the single and warp knits.

TOPSTITCHING AID

Home seamstresses find many of today's fabrics difficult to topstitch on a continuous straight line. A new sewing aid should help overcome the problems caused by fabric bulk and spongy characteristics. The solution is a tape that contains markings of various widths. You simply stitch through the tape along the guideline that is the desired distance from the seamline or garment edge.

strategy in his Downstate forays or shifts his emphasis back to Daley and the organizational.

The Statehouse feeling is that Simon may be somewhat vulnerable Downstate to charges that he has forfeited his earlier idealism in his alliance with Daley to fulfill his ambition to be governor.

Downstate Democrats may concede that Paul Simon's white hat has become ever so slightly gray, but they don't relish the idea of anyone jerking it off and tramping it in the mud.

Simon Over Walker 2-1 in Chicago, 3-1 in Downstate

By KEN WATSON
Copley News Service

Springfield—The Statehouse is skeptical about the Walker polls.

Virtually no one beneath the Capitol Dome believes that "walking" Dan Walker is moving ahead of L. Gov. Paul Simon in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor.

The Walker organization has been citing results of a private poll, showing that Walker pulled ahead of Simon after the two candidates made a joint appearance on a Chicago television show.

According to the Walker people, pre-show results showed 51% of the contacted favoring Simon and 27% for Walker. Afterwards, it is claimed, those polled favored Walker over Simon by 48% to 42%. Seven per cent presumably were undecided.

Simon is a good public speaker, handles himself well in press conferences, was a good debater in House and Senate and has a broad knowledge of state government affairs.

Walker, in his rare Springfield appearance, has been regarded as somewhat abrasive and occasionally reckless in his comments about state issues.

The pre-television results would be accepted by the Statehouse as reliable. It would be expected that Simon would lead in Chicago by about two to one.

As far as Downstate is concerned, Springfield estimates would place Simon ahead by about three to one.

The Big Walker push Downstate has yet to be made, however, and it conceivably could alter the picture.

It is conceded that Walker's walking tactic did build him an impressive base of good will.

But in recent days there has been a growing feeling that he may have eroded much of this, especially among Democrats who vote in the primary, by his slashing attacks on Simon.

Some Democrats feel Walker has been too personal, too bitter, and that Simon does not deserve such handling.

Downstate does not mind anyone tearing into Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, but a native son from a small town is a different matter. This is especially so if the attacks are made by a Chicagoan.

It will be interesting to see if Walker persists in his tough

Volunteers Help Encourage Progress In Mental Health Care--Mrs. Simon

"The key to successful mental health programs is close cooperation among professional mental health workers, state government and the local community," Mrs. Paul Simon said in this area Thursday evening.

"Groups such as yours provide invaluable services both through your own volunteer efforts and through actions which cause the government to re-view its priorities and commitments."

Mrs. Simon, wife of the Illinois lieutenant governor, addressed the Madison County Association for Mental Health, meeting at the Planning Pit restaurant, Route 138.

"Mental health care has come a long way since the days when the word 'lunatic' was coined as an apt contraction for the name of the hospital of St.

Mary of Bethlehem in London," Mrs. Simon said.

"We've literally dragged ourselves out of the dark ages in terms of understanding mental illness in a matter of a few decades."

"That movement can continue, with your help. Your prodding can help encourage state government to keep its attention focused on the most urgent priorities and improvements."

"Conditions have been better because of voluntary organizations such as the Illinois Association for Mental Health."

"Through the efforts of the Illinois General Assembly, especially Rep. Daniel Pierce's Mental Health Investigating Committee, treatment for mentally ill children in Illinois has improved."

"Alert citizens can help that hopeful start to continue. They can do this by continuing such demands for adequate monitoring of the private facilities where children are placed with Department of Mental Health grants-in-aid."

"You can work to improve the programs for emotionally disturbed children with impaired sight and hearing."

"Some children first diagnosed as 'withdrawn' have in fact been shown through proper testing to be only hard of hearing and have been successfully removed from institutions," Mrs. Simon noted.

"You can urge the continual improvement of coordination of services between health services and other agencies, especially schools and law enforcement bodies."

"You can help foster the necessary community attitudes so that the emotionally disturbed child does not end up in jail because his behavior is not understood--and so that the child who has been institutionalized can return more easily to school."

"We all agree that movement from mental institutions to the community is a primary goal."

"But only constant public vigilance will insure that state agencies keep watch over the institutions to which released patients to insure that their condition continues to improve."

"Mental health programs must be adequately funded and the money spent in the ways which most benefit the patients. The Department of Mental Health may well need the professional services of its more than 50 employees making $27,000 or more a year."

"At the same time, I am afraid that the fact that pay for mental health technicians begins at only $4,860 may be a better indication that we are not yet fully committed to obtaining the best care available."

"Most superintendents are doing a good job, but I am disturbed when my husband tells me of touring one facility where the superintendent had to introduce himself to the employees under him as they went around the grounds."

"I encourage you to keep up your good work and keep up the pressures on state governments to maintain and expand its commitment."

"Governments should be judged by how they care for the most helpless in society," she concluded.

Mrs. Ogilvie to Visit Two Pre-School Retarded Centers

Mrs. Richard Ogilvie, wife of Illinois Governor Richard B. Ogilvie, will visit the Madison County Association for Retarded Children's two Pre-School Centers in Alton and Edwardsville Monday, Feb. 14.

Mrs. Ogilvie, volunteer services chairman of the Illinois Association for the Mentally Retarded, has been visiting public and private retardation services throughout the state to talk with parents and professionals to determine the unmet needs of the retarded.

She first became interested in the problem after seeing a film of the William Fox Children's Center, a state school for the severely retarded.

Mrs. Ogilvie surveyed over 10,000 parents of retarded in the state to get their ideas as to needed services and decided to try to increase public awareness of the problem.

She also is the honorary sponsor of the Illinois Youth Association for Retarded Children, a 500-member group of young adults and teenagers who volunteer their services working for the retarded in public and private facilities.

Mrs. Ogilvie's party will arrive at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Alton, where the Alton center is located, at 2:45 p.m. Feb. 14 and visit the staff.

She will proceed to Edwardsville, arriving at 3:45 p.m., where she will visit the Edwardsville center at St. John's United Methodist Church, 211 St. Louis Ave. A reception will be held for Mrs. Ogilvie in the Fellowship Hall of the church, where she will meet parents and friends of the retarded personally.

Thomas E. Lynch is executive director of the two Pre-School Centers. The centers are funded by the State Department of Mental Health, the Madison County Comprehensive Mental Health Board (708) and contributions.

The program serves 28 children at present from all areas of Madison County.

Services and training provided include speech therapy, developmental physical education, body identification, social competence and self-care skills.

Enrollment at the two centers includes pre-school-age children and older children who because of the degree of their handicap, are not eligible for public school special education. Invitations to the reception are being mailed to friends of the retarded in Madison County.

'World Day of Prayer' Set March 3

A "World Day of Prayer" celebration will be held at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ at 7:30 p.m. Friday, March 3, sponsored by the Quad-City Council of Church Women United. The event was announced Thursday at a meeting of the St. Peter Afternoon Guild held at the church.

Mrs. Helene Kettelhut will serve as chairman of the celebration, using the theme, "All Joy Be Yours."

The devotional lesson on "Labor" was presented by Mrs. Leola Arbogast, assisted by Mrs. Arline Brinkmeyer and Mrs. Ruth Christpher.

During the business meeting, plans were completed for an Ash Wednesday breakfast, to be served at the church Feb. 16 at 9 a.m., and to assist the Brotherhood members at their annual "Sausage Supper" on Wednesday.

A dessert luncheon was served to 30 members prior to the meeting.

Patience Circle To Serve WSCS

Mrs. Clara Sotiroff gave a lesson, entitled "The Compassionate Christ" by Billy Graham, at a meeting of Patience Circle of Wednesday United Methodist Church held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Leona Cartwright, 2328 Wabash Ave.

The circle leader, Mrs. Cartwright, opened the meeting and Mrs. Ethel Lerch reported on progress of a "School of Missions" now being conducted at the church each Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lerch also announced that members will serve as hostesses at a meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service tomorrow night. Mrs. Cartwright informed the group that 47 sick calls were made in January.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mesdames Woodie Lynn, Olivia Lehman, Esther Langoff, Goldie Grewell, Alice Cruse, Mildred Carper and those named. The March meeting will be held with Mrs. Lerch, 2208 Edwards St.

Sclerosis to Be McKinley Topic

The McKinley School PTA executive board has a completed plan for the general PTA meeting tomorrow night, when the program will deal with multiple sclerosis.

Mrs. Sadie Bringer, president, presided at the board meeting, which was attended by Mesdames Jackie York, Mildred Noeth, Suzy Flinn, Imogene Taylor, Gertrude Lueben, Darlene Brawley, Rowena Mikolazuk and Violet Jeffers and Principal Gary Firenzer.

Mrs. Mikolazuk was selected to represent the executive board on the nominating committee. Redecorating projects for the kitchen and nurse's office were discussed, as were tentative plans for the annual school picnic.

Announcement was made that the yearly Area PTA Council awards dinner will be held Feb. 17 at Granite City High School. Brawley will be charge.

Daughters of Isabella Plan Activities

Mrs. Mayme Elmore, a new member, was introduced by Mrs. Peggy Crankovich, regent of the Daughters of Isabella, at a meeting Thursday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. Forty members attended.

Mrs. Ann Pare opened with prayer followed by various charity reports. Contributions were made to two groups who conduct charitable projects.

Mrs. Crankovich announced a membership drive will take place in May. She said April 22 has been designated as "Prayer Day" for all Daughters of Isabella organizations.

A discussion on the national convention, to be held July 24 to Aug. 4 in Chicago was conducted. Mrs. Crankovich was named delegate and Miss Dorothy Hoedebeck as an alternate.

A letter of thanks was read from the Rev. Perron, a priest in the Philippines, for items sent by the group to aid his charity work overseas.

Birthdays observed were those of Mesdames Mary Horvat, Gussie Cheatham, Ceil and Wilma Mance, Mary Ann Buck and Vera Carey.

Mrs. Clara Schillinger provided the program by showing slides of a recent trip she made to Spain and Africa.

The February social committee, headed by Mrs. Dell Miller, included Mesdames Pauline Meszars, Agnes Roderick, Virginia Sever, Margaret Waller, Wilma Mance, Ceil Mance, Maxine Tawney and Miss Dorothy Hoedebeck.

General Steel Sees 'Start of Turnaround' After Net Loss of $8,715,000 During 1971

General Steel Industries, Inc., had a net loss of $8,715,000, or $3.46 per share of common stock, in 1971 compared with a net loss of $2,788,000, or $1.11 per share, in 1970. W. W. Gray Jr., president, reported late Thursday after a meeting of the board of directors.

It was announced last November that labor and material costs for two large rapid transit car orders being built under contract by GS's St. Louis Car Division were far exceeding previous forecasts and that the company's net loss for 1971 would be in excess of $6 million, with the actual amount subject to further review and year-end adjustment.

Gray said the 1971 loss "was more than accounted for by the St. Louis Car deficit."

"The balance of the corporation operated profitably in spite of a costly strike at our Castings Division (in Granite City) which began Nov. 20 and halted production for almost two full months."

"A substantial portion of the St. Louis Car loss was caused by the establishment of a reserve to cover all anticipated losses on completion of the two large transit car contracts in 1972."

"When these contracts were originally bid, the complexity of engineering and manufacturing cars of such advanced design was greatly underestimated."

"Our problems were subsequently compounded by severe production delays at St. Louis

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 10 Mon., Feb. 7, 1972

Car, customer design changes, unexpectedly high labor costs and supplier difficulties.

"A total of 428 rapid transit cars are scheduled to be shipped in 1972 to the New York City Transit Authority and Chicago South Suburban Mass Transit District."

General Steel Industries had net sales in 1971 of $72,316,000 compared with $88,236,000 in 1970.

"We have invoked the most stringent cost and inventory controls in the company's history," Gray said, "and carried out a substantial reduction in personnel in our seven manufacturing divisions and at corporate headquarters."

"We have continued our determined efforts, begun in 1970, to dispose of unprofitable plants and facilities and reduce our involvement in marginal operations."

"We have streamlined management procedures for faster decision on day-to-day developments throughout the company."

"The entire top management of the St. Louis Car Division has been reorganized and strengthened."

"New financial and budgetary controls have been installed and modern cost estimating procedures adopted to assure that future bids are based on realistic cost estimates which will produce satisfactory profits."

"The influence of the programs developed in 1971 will be felt throughout 1972 and in later years."

"Even though St. Louis Car will make no contribution to earnings in 1972, the balance of the corporation should continue to operate profitably and, with the expected improvement in business, this should start General Steel Industries moving into the turnaround we have been working so hard to achieve."

The consolidated statement with 1971 given first and 1970 second, follows:

Net sales, $72,315,688 and $80,237,008.

Loss before income taxes, loss of $12,904,566 and loss of $4,748,706.

Income tax credit, $4,190,000 and $2,455,000.

Net loss before extraordinary items, loss of $8,714,566 and loss of $2,293,706.

Extraordinary items (net of income taxes), none and minus

$64,359.

Net loss for the year, loss of $8,714,566 and loss of $2,788,065.

Net loss per share before extraordinary items, minus $3.46 and minus $1.11.

Net loss per share, minus $3.46 and minus $1.11.

2,069 Doing Graduate Study at University

Enrollment for the current winter academic quarter at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern is 11,830 students.

That figure is 1,066 below enrollment for the fall academic quarter. Registrar Robert Bruker said a drop in enrollment from the fall to the winter quarter is "quite normal."

The drop is caused by seasonal students—those not attending the university in the winter — and by natural attrition, Bruker said.

The current quarter's enrollment is 860 below the enrollment for the comparable quarter in 1971.

Of the 11,830 students, 8,134 are full-time and 3,716 are part-time, giving a full-time equivalent of 10,094.

An enrollment breakdown of both full-time and part-time students shows 2,805 freshmen; 2,370 sophomores; 2,450 juniors;

Woman, 2 Children Hurt in Accident

A woman and two children were injured when the cars of Linda R. Warren, 24, of 4003 Kirkpatrick Homes, and William Austin, 2115 Benton St., collided at Nanticoke Road and Victory Drive at 12:45 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Warren and the children, Billy Warren Jr., 5, and Angela Warren, 3, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they were released following treatment.

Mrs. Warren complained of pain to her left hip and left foot. Billy sustained an abrasion to the right side of his forehead and Angela suffered a laceration to her lower lip and an abrasion to the right side of her forehead.

'THIS IS YOUR LIFE' HONORS MRS. CONNOLE

Members of the Madison Senior Citizens' Club ventured into the cold weather to attend a birthday observance and a covered dish dinner at the Madison Recreation Center.

Birthday of Mrs. Clarence Green, Mrs. A. J. Harden and Mrs. Mary Connole were observed.

The tables were adorned with bud vases of spring flowers, with a centerpiece on the head table.

Mrs. Connole was honored with a "this is your life" program, announced by the president, Clarence Green.

She was surprised as he began to read of her birth on Jan. 30 in Abilene, Kan. He left the year open but she proudly said it was 88 years ago.

As he read of various happenings in her childhood, she said she was amazed that he had so much information.

He presented her with a booklet of articles, including "Happiness," "An Older Person's Prayer" and "Grins and Chuckles."

He noted that the day of her birth was a Wednesday and said he had a record of the day of the week of each of her birthdays.

She was presented with a knitted shawl from a number of the members. The birthday song was sung for the three honorees.

Cakes were cut and served with the dinner. Frank Fink, who was among the guests, presented Mrs. Connole with a bouquet and spoke of their long acquaintance.

Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bilbey, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harden, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shifter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Green.

Don Mancoll, Venice School Band Director, promises there will be plenty of delicious chili on hand this Saturday, Feb. 12 when the Venice Band Parents host their 4th annual chili supper. Carry outs will be available or dine on the spot at the Venice Recreation Center from noon till 6:00 PM. Chili lovers, this should be a must on your schedule.

Kenny Rankin sends advance word that the Concordia Lutheran Church group, 23rd and Grand, Granite City, will serve a family style sausage supper from 3:00 PM to 7:00 PM on Sunday, Feb. 20. More on this later.

For an evening of family fun and entertainment hope you're planning to attend the Marshall School PTA annual Winter Carnival. It's set for this Friday, Feb. 11 from six to 8:30 PM. Bill and Ann Osborn are co-chairmen and they've been busy planning games, entertainment and refreshments for your evening of family fun.

Hope that you've remembered that one week from today is Valentine's Day. That gives us the opportunity to confess that we love our customers, thank them for their confidence and say we appreciate their business. We'd like to be your Valentine too at The First National Bank in Madison. Also this reminder of two big area Valentine Dances . . . St. Stanislaus Lodge #104 of Madison holds a Valentine Dance Saturday, Feb. 12 at the Polish Hall. Music by Louis Nupel and his Polka Toppers commencing at 9:00 PM. Proceeds go to the youth scholarship fund. And that same night (Feb. 12) the Bubblemasters' Diving Club holds its 2nd annual Birthday Ball at the Venice-Madison American Legion Home with music by John Schmitt and the Jokers beginning at 8:00 PM. Proceeds will be used to purchase a new compressor for the group's use.

A salute to Denise Rankin, 7th grade from Venice for winning the top award in the Poster Contest sponsored by the Venice Crippled Children's Organization. Honorable mention awards were earned by 8th graders Robert McKinley, Reggie Gardner and Clifford Mathis, Jr.

The Schermers Bulletin . . .

Another big week at Schermers. With the ice and snow we ran out of rock salt twice last week; some will be in to-night. We still have plenty of Prestone. It seems as though these radiators take the coldest days to develop a leak.

You remember the steamed clams we spoke about last week. Would you believe we sold out in one day? We got a new supply Thursday, so if you missed out, the clams are back.

Thursday evening some customers were left gasping when they saw a lady check out 20 half gallons of our Chef's Best Ice Milk. Of course 2 for 89 cents is a real good price, but 20 half gallons? Created quite a stir. Warning to all concerned. Stolen food stamps are being sold at cut rates at various plant gates, taverns and etc. Our cashiers have lists of all stolen stamps and we are duty bound to call the police on all cases. Our understanding is that this is a Federal offense punishable by $5000 fine or five years in jail or both. Please, don't get "conned" into buying food stamps anyplace except a regular food stamp office.

Turkey parts are still a real "buy". Check today's ad for the details. We also received a shipment of fine capons at about a 20 cent per pound discount. They are listed also. We now have a lot of people besides "weight watchers" buying the turkey and shrimp we have been touting. They are good buys and the quality is excellent. The New Zealand lamb is still in good supply and the price is still the old low price; one of the few meat items that haven't changed. Try it; you'll like it!

12 Citizen Groups Helping Write Illinois Education Plan for '70s

Copley News Service
Springfield—Finalization of an overall guide plan for Illinois education in the next decade will come a step nearer very shortly as members of 12 regional advisory councils begin meeting to evaluate the second draft of the plan.

Two separate meetings will be held in Chicago and one in Springfield. Members of six of the 12 regional groups will attend each.

Later in February, another meeting is scheduled. At that session, the present draft will be evaluated by the Legislative Conference, made up of representatives of 30 organizations

Page 12 Mon., Feb. 7, 1972

Interested in education, and headed by Don Edick. Following both these sessions, another amended version will be drawn up for public distribution by the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction Michael J. Bakalis.

Periodically after that, public hearings will be held, to assess how well the goals outlined in the report are being met, and to determine courses of action where they are not being achieved.

The report, titled "Action Goals for the 1970's" and subtitled "An agenda for Illinois education," was the outgrowth of a series of public hearings held throughout the state last fall, when anyone in the public was invited to appear and present his views to educators and representatives of Bakalis' staff.

The first draft resulted from those hearings, and it was discussed at a statewide conference on Illinois education held for three days last September, in Chicago. From that statewide conference, the current second draft evolved.

The comprehensive report outlines goals of education in the state, and sets out specific objectives for the present decade.

Included are discussions of equal educational opportunity which cover racial and cultural imbalances, non-English speaking students and exceptional children, as well as finances, organization of schools, school governance, curriculum from pre-kindergarten through adult education, professional standards and qualifications, and pupil services and student rights.

There are about 20 members in each of the 12 citizens' advisory groups, representing a cross-section of those interested in Illinois education, including parents, teachers, board members, administrators and students.

Implementation of the report's recommendations would require either legislative action, voluntary cooperation by colleges and universities, administrative directives from the superintendent's office, or cooperative action among public agencies, private groups or both.

KENNETH CABLE Kenneth M. Cable At Sheppard AFB

Airman Kenneth M. Cable son of Mr. and Mrs. Viri Cable, 2616 East 28th St., has graduated from basic training at Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls, Texas.

He is now enrolled in a technical school for jet mechanics at the Air Force on Nov. 16. He was home on leave last month.

SIU-SW Offers Four Courses in French at Paris

Four courses in French will be offered this summer in Paris by the Department of Foreign Language and Literature at Southern Illinois University, Springfield.

The courses include a four-hour undergraduate class in French culture and civilization, a four-hour advanced composition course for undergraduates, an independent reading course which can be taken for a maximum of four hours of credit on either the graduate or undergraduate seminar on a selected contemporary French author.

Credit can be earned by taking a proficiency examination in elementary or intermediate French at SIU-SW upon return to the campus.

Prof. Claude Francis, who was reared in France, will head the summer classes. Miss Francis received a bachelor's degree from the University of Paris and a certificate in French literature from the Sorbonne.

She also studied three years at the Conservatoire d'Art Dramatique in Paris and has a bachelor's degree in law from the Faculté de Droit in Paris. She earned her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Miss Francis, who has published seven books in French and also written scripts and produced programs in French for Radio-Canada, says the summer courses offer a good refresher for French teachers.

"Study will be centered in Paris. We will try to live a little of the intellectual life there and give students the chance to meet the French people."

A chartered flight will leave St. Louis on June 18. Following eight weeks of formal study and guided tours in and around Paris, there will be a week of free time for travel before the return trip to St. Louis from Paris on Aug. 22.

Those interested should contact Professor Francis by calling her office 692-2314, or at her home in Edwardsville, 563-2337.

A down payment of $130 is required before Feb. 15, made payable to Extension Service at SIU-SW. The package deal will include cost of transportation, room, breakfast and lunch during the course session. Evening meals, personal expenses and cost of travel during the free week are not included.

Scout Council Plans Drug Abuse Program

Operation Reach, an action project related to drug abuse prevention, will be launched in the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, on Saturday, Feb. 12, according to Merrill Ottwein, council president.

Robert Burroughs of Co-ordinated Youth Services in Granite City was named to head a committee to administer the program.

The first Operation Reach meeting for all Senior Patrol Leaders and Scoutmasters and for Post Presidents and Advisors will begin at 1 p.m. at our Lord's Lutheran Church, Collinsville, at the junction of Routes 70 and 150.

Ottwein said that new and positive approaches to drug abuse prevention will be offered to the youth of this area.

The project was developed nationally to supplement the traditional physical and mental fitness program of the national organization.

The project will also involve locally the 1,602 Scouts and Explorers of the Cahokia Mound Council.

The project will be a continuing one, Ottwein said, and meetings and projects will be developed by young men for their own Scout Troops and Explorer Posts.

Following the initial session, unit meetings for unit members, adult leaders, and parents will be set up, with each unit setting up its schedule of discussion.

The most important fact to recognize about drug abuse is that it is a symptom of other underlying problems, Burroughs explained. The BSA efforts to prevent drug abuse aim at the conditions that cause it.

We accept the fact that it is unrealistic to assume that unit leaders can become experts on drug abuse. It is realistic, however, to assume that they can bring visitors to Illinois, the drug problem and have reliable information about drugs that they can equip themselves with.

Unit Leaders play a key role because they are dedicated to help young men attain their full potential as citizens in keeping with the on-going purpose of the BSA, Burroughs stated.

Another factor that is important is that, although Unit Leaders will present the material, it is the young men and their leaders in their troop or post, any special unit program will come about because it is the national youth organization that is the focus of the program.

Ottwein pointed out that the national youth organization does not expect to solve the drug abuse problem, but it can apply the resources of its many members to make a real contribution toward the ultimate solution.

Office Zoning Before GC Plan Commission

A petition to zone five lots adjoining the 3600 block of Nameoki Road for professional offices will be considered by the Granite City Plan Commission at a meeting at 1:15 p.m. Thursday in the city offices at 291 Adams St.

The petition, filed by Herman Schroeder of Granite City Realty Co., calls for the rezoning of lots at 3662 and 3668 Nameoki Road, 1508 Garfield Ave., and 1501 and 1503 Cottage Ave., from R-2 residential to C-1 commercial.

Also meeting this week is the Granite City Zoning Board of Appeals at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday in the Adams Street city office building.

Divorces Granted to Four Area Couples

Four area couples obtained divorces last week in Madison County Circuit Court. Divorced were:

Loretta Jones of Granite City from Charles Dwight Jones of East Prairie, Mo. They were married Nov. 22, 1969, in St. Louis and separated in June 1970. Deserion was charged.

Mike Parks from Monte A. Parks, both of Granite City. They were married Oct. 12, 1941, and separated in August 1968. Mental cruelty was charged.

Debra Terry from Gary Terry, both of Granite City. They were married Feb. 6, 1970, in St. Clair County and separated last December. Mental cruelty was charged. Custody of one child was given to the mother, and the father agreed to pay child support of $15 per week.

Mildred Vaughn from Edward Leonard Vaughn, both of Granite City. They were married Feb. 11, 1946, and separated last month. Mental cruelty was charged.

Howlett Urges A World's Fair Of Agriculture

To strengthen Illinois position as a leading farm state, the state legislature should help promote a World's Fair of Agriculture in central Illinois, Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, said Saturday.

Addressing the 18th annual meeting of the Illinois Farm Bureau's Union, at Springfield, Howlett said the state fairsgrounds would be an ideal site for such a fair.

"The World's Fair should be housed in a permanent building," Howlett said. "It should include a museum, a Hall of Fame for inventors and other prominent figures in the history of agriculture, and a permanent showcase for agricultural products and equipment."

The state should allow use of property already in existence at the fairsgrounds. Private industry should subsidize it with practically no cost to the state payers.

"We should have it ready by 1975 to help dramatize the 200th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence."

For years, I've urged involvement of private enterprise in government. A World's Fair of Agriculture would help farmers stay on the land and would help businessmen who depend on the farm industry.

"We spend millions annually to promote Illinois products in foreign countries. Money could be well spent promoting a World's Fair of Agriculture to bring visitors to Illinois."

"Our state leads all others in production for export of soybeans, feed grains (including corn) and soybean oil. We are a leading livestock producer, with $1.5 billion receipts in 1971, more than half our total farm receipts."

"For other states have been bidding for the International Livestock Exhibition, currently held annually in Chicago. It is the oldest, most prestigious event of its kind."

"We should never let this show leave Chicago. We should get the dairy cattle show back from Wisconsin. We should look into the Illinois fair leadership in agriculture."

"By helping agriculture in Illinois, the people and the business community help themselves."

"We all pay the cost when farmers move. A smaller investment, lower consumption, less revenue for Illinois."

"If we can improve life in rural Illinois and make a better place to live, work and go to school — then we have made a better Illinois for all."

Woman Hurt in Crash At 23rd-Madison

Ms. Francis Helling, 51, of 2425 Iowa St., was injured when the car in which she was riding, driven by Joseph Helling of the same address, and the car of Vernard D. Bolton, 3420 Terminal Ave., collided at 4:25 p.m. Thursday.

She was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital complaining of pain to her right chest and abrasion to her elbow. X-rays of her chest, ribs and right elbow were taken and she was released.

Car Hit From Rear

The car of Lester L. Penberthy, 2820 Forest Ave., stopped for the traffic signal on Nameoki Road at Madison Avenue, was struck from the rear by the car of William E. Ibbill, 2408 Kirkpatrick Homes, at 3:20 p.m. Thursday, police reported. Ibbill told police his foot slipped from the brake pedal as he approached Penberthy's car.

Car, Truck Collide

The car of William C. Campbell, 63 Garces Homes, Madison, and a tractor-trailer driven by L. J. Hartman of Waverly, collided in the 3700 block of Nameoki Road at 3:30 p.m. Thursday.

Salley Gracey Receives Secretaries LACE Award

Mrs. Salley Gracey, secretary since 1965 and a past chapter treasurer, Mrs. Gracey was presented with an engraved gold charm bracelet to mark her selection.

A member of the organization since 1965 and a past chapter treasurer, Mrs. Gracey was presented with an engraved gold charm bracelet to mark her selection.

Mrs. Gracey resides at 2308 Lynch Ave. She currently is chairman of the chapter's Secretaries Week committee. The LACE Award, which originated with the Tri-City Chapter, is based upon four qualifications — being liked by all members, active in all chapter projects, cooperative in all events and enthusiastic about the National Secretaries Association, in general, and the local chapter in particular. This is the tenth year for the LACE presentation.

The guest speaker was Thom Kolesa, administrative assistant to the president of General Steel Industries, Castings Division. He was introduced by the program chairman, Miss Dolores Bourisaw. He spoke on the subject, "The Romance of Transportation," a topic selected for 1972 by the international headquarters of the secretaries organization.

Mrs. Pauline Weir, president of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, was named representative to the national BPW legislative conference, set for March 1 and 2 in Washington, D. C., at a board meeting of the local chapter held last week at the East Side Levee District office in Granite City.

Selected as alternate delegate from the local club was Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher. Also discussed by members was a course in "Practical Politics," to be offered to the public in March under the direction of Mrs. Vernice Wortman. Mrs. Dolores Allen, District 14 chairman, announced a president's council meeting will take place at her home this week.

Club members interested in obtaining a BPW Foundation scholarship grant to further their education were asked to submit a resume to Mrs. Annellen Smith, scholarship committee chairman, prior to Feb. 25.

WHY ISN'T THE BOTTLE FULL?

We have heard this question many times when we have given a customer their prescription and the bottle is not filled to the top. There can be many reasons for this happening. In some cases, the drug is stored in a concentrated powder form and a liquid has to be added to release its active ingredient. Sometimes it is just a case of leaving room for a medicine that needs to be given an extra hard shaking before it is taken.

If there is something unusual about a prescription, your pharmacist will usually mention it to you and its most cases it will be explained on the label.

Recommendations for Five Posts on County Board in Primary Ballot Here Tomorrow

Quid-Cityans are faced tomorrow with the task of choosing five Democratic nominees for positions on the new 19-member Madison County Board of Supervisors.

As of May 1, the present 49-member board will go out of existence, ending the traditional county-township system which has served as county legislators.

The selection process is made more difficult than usual by the fact that, in a number of instances, experienced county legislators are pitted against each other.

On the theory that township supervisors are in perhaps the best position to represent their districts on the County Board, and to continue non-mandatory but helpful township-county coordination on an informal basis, the Press-Record favors nomination to the board of the four local supervisors: Nelson Hagner of Granite City, Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore of the Venice-Madison area, Louis Whitsell of Nameoki and Walter Sparks of Chouteau Township (including the Mitchell area).

Mr. Hagner, not only is Granite City supervisor but also chairman of the County Board. He is considered the favorite to also head the board after it is restructured with smaller membership. Neither Mr. Hagner nor Mr. Moore has ballot opposition.

Mr. Whitsell, a tool and die maker, is opposed in the District 21 primary by Edgar A. Patrick, Nameoki Township tax collector. Mr. Sparks, a service station owner, is opposed in District 16 by Albert E. Doerr of South Roxana, a refinery technician.

Mr. Sparks and Mr. Whitsell are recommended in the primary because of their energetic service and the fact that they already have demonstrated their capabilities as County Board members. Their consistent service has shown outstanding interest in community and governmental service and could serve effectively on the board.

In District 21, Carl V. Bucher, operator of a barber shop, and Carl H. Roach, retired railroad employee and furniture store operator, are the candidates. Both currently serve on the County Board and could serve with competence if re-elected. Our preference by a narrow margin is Mr. Roach.

Incumbent board members opposing each other in District 19 are William B. Webb Jr., a diesel engine operator and chairman of the County Juvenile Home Committee, and Ford G. Johnson, an engineering draftsman group leader and former Granite City alderman. Mr. Webb offers more extensive County Board experience, while Mr. Johnson is more knowledgeable about municipal government, an understanding beneficial to county deliberations.

Again, by only a slight margin, we favor Mr. Johnson.

District 25 contenders are David L. Huckle, a shear line operator and an incumbent board member, and Homer M. Boothman, a brick mason. The Press-Record endorses Mr. Huckle on the basis of his familiarity with Nameoki Township needs and with the County Board and its committees.

'Foot in Door' to Evaluate Road Proposals May Lead to a Regional 'Super Government'

It is no strain on one's memory to recall when the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council was created for a single purpose: Uncle Sam said he would cut off federal highway funds to Illinois and Missouri unless they set up some kind of screening unit to comment on whether each proposed road improvement fit compatibly into metropolitan region plans.

Many other federal tax aid programs later were assigned to the Gateway Council, which by 1971 considered itself strong enough to also create an agency, one intended to operate rapid transit.

The latter step prompted the Bi-State Development Agency to offer to Gateway its surface mass transportation system, since both Bi-State and the U. S. regard the two kinds of transit as inseparable.

Then, on Feb. 2, the Reform of Government Structure Task Force of Gateway recommended that Gateway absorb the entire Bi-State Agency, complete with buses, Bi-State Parks Airport, the Granite City Wharf and Public Terminal and the Gateway Arch passenger system. The task force proposed that the combined entity be called the East-West Gateway Planning and Development Agency.

The merger or "gobbling up" idea may have merit, but the chain of events shows how far a door can be opened once federal administrators get their foot inside.

What started out as a body to simply review whether an Illinois highway was going to dead-end or meet up with a Missouri road is now on the verge of changing from a sidelines observer to a major player in the arena.

Bi-State has performed many valuable services despite being hampered by lack of support from political leaders, who contended that it was not sufficiently subject to political pressures to the public. Each of the two governors appoint half of the ten commissioners, to staggered terms. Interestingly, this very aspect—being only indirectly subject to political pressures—was considered to be one of Bi-State's principal strengths in the early years of its existence.

East-West Gateway is replete with mayors, supervisors, county board chairmen and planning agency chairmen, aided by state highway and development administrators, citizens chosen from a cross-section of the population, a regional forum and various task forces and committees.

This makeup could lead to greater links with the public than a governor-appointed agency. But, as Quid-Cityans are aware, the series of public elections and organization elections lead to constant and sometimes erratic changes in Gateway Council membership, leaving some communities with inadequate representation for considerable periods. For example, the East St. Louis mayor is an automatic member, but there is no such membership for areas of comparable size like Alton-Wood River, the Quad-Cities and Belleville.

If there is to be a Gateway Planning and Development Agency, we wonder if the selection of its members ended at the present Gateway Council board is chosen.

Under the present trend, St. Louis County Supervisor Root is the "hot" appointee to lead the new agency—a frightening prospect in view of his savage anti-Illinois attitude of recent months.

He has hustled with the community leaders in all the community projects in recent years—United Fund, 75th anniversary of the League of Commerce projects and Masonic humanitarian efforts.

Our voting privilege is a wonderful thing, and let's hope there is no price tag attached to it. Personally, nobody has enough materialistic goods to buy my vote. But I will gladly give my vote to any person who I believe deserves it and is capable of putting it to the best interest of all individuals.

There will be a lot of politicking in the months to come, so this is only the beginning. The primary on Feb. 8 and the election on April 4 to choose a county board member to represent our area is a very important decision for all of us.

I believe our present representative and township supervisor, Mrs. Helen Rawlins, is a fine job and deserves to be re-elected as our representative.

(Copley News Service)

There must be give and take in successful diplomacy — and often a recognition of realities that may be only a deceptive veneer over an older, unchanged set of circumstances.

In agreeing to transfer administrative authority over Okinawa to Japan by May 15 instead of July 1, and to remove all nuclear weapons from our bases there, the United States is bowing to some bonafide realities.

One of them is that the government of Prime Minister Eisaku Sato is under pressure to achieve a symbolic reassertion of Japanese sovereignty over the Ryukyu Islands she lost in World War II.

Another is the deep-rooted Japanese aversion to nuclear weapons.

This has dictated that they shall not be deployed at U. S. bases on the home islands of Japan, and now that they shall be stored at the bases we maintain on Okinawa.

These realities—and a desire to keep relations with Japan on a friendly footing—have caused our government to make very great concessions on the future of Okinawa.

It is quite another question, however, whether the Japanese recognize the reality of their own position in demanding the concessions.

Nothing whatever has occurred that further weakens the presence of a credible nuclear deterrent force in the Far East.

Indeed, the progress Communist China has made in developing nuclear weapons and the missiles to deliver them has increased the importance of that deterrent.

Japan has enjoyed a comfortable security with a minimal "self-defense force" as formidable as Okinawa stood as a formidable bastion of defense for the entire Western Pacific.

There is no question that the United States now will face new problems in meeting its commitment almost as important to other nations as to Japan.

Equipment to keep the peace is rendered more difficult by continued pressure from the anti-American Left in Japan to remove even further the U. S. military presence both in the home islands and Okinawa.

Prime Minister Sato ended his San Clemente conference with President Nixon with a statement that he expected a divergence in the foreign policies of Japan and the United States in the future.

Japan, he said, must recognize a "new situation" created by the entry of Communist China into the United Nations and the expansion of Nationalist China.

The exchange of Chinese delegations to the U. N. does create a new situation in New York.

But there is more old than new in the situation confronting Japan closer to home.

It is the same old Red China, not a new one, that menaces the island empire from across the Sea of Japan.

Keep Physically Fit—to Be 'Rich In The Things That Really Count'

Dr. Eugene W. Walton, tri-city YMCA board president, the local "Y" staff and Robert Salisbury, physical director of the Downtown St. Louis YMCA, share a deep belief in the value of physical fitness for people of all ages.

In introducing a speaking program to Granite City Rotarians during 1972 YMCA Week, Dr. Walton noted with pride that he and other Quad-City men averaging 50 years of age have won 109 of 111 games in volleyball competition with teams from other communities, including a young Scott Air Force Base squad.

Salisbury used charts to show how persons who are fit can perform both routine and difficult tasks with greater ease and less wear-and-tear on their hearts and circulatory systems than those who are overweight or whose muscles are flabby.

The approach taken by the YMCA to the subject of physical fitness is as follows:

"Once upon a time there was a man who couldn't read a telephone book in two minutes."

"He couldn't even swim the English Channel. Or lift 400 pounds."

"Nevertheless, he felt like a million bucks... and had lots of fun getting that way."

"Moral: You don't have to be the strongest man in town, or a top-flight lady athlete, to enjoy the wonderful feeling that comes with physical fitness."

"Just join your YMCA today and live longer, happier and healthier."

"What's the secret of physical fitness?"

"Well there's really no secret. All you have to work at it. Regularly."

"You can play golf. Or swim. Or ride a bike. Or work in the garden. Or go on hikes, or run around the block."

"Any of these things, done regularly, will keep you in trim. But that's the problem: doing them regularly."

"It rains or it snows; it's too hot or too cold. The bike has a flat tire. Hiking by yourself is a lonely business—or maybe you feel silly running around the block."

But there is the YMCA. Weather is always good there. Equipment is kept in top shape, too.

"Best of all are the college-trained physical fitness experts at the 'Y.' They know their modern methods, and they tailor a fitness program just for you—and for your wife, too."

"No, they can't make you over into a college kid. They're not that good."

"But they can make you feel better than you ever thought you'd feel again—full of bounce and the old zing, feeling so great that it's fun just to be alive."

Exercise needs to be related to a doctor's evaluation of one's condition, it is stressed.

The viewpoint is that most people can safely benefit from what might seem like strenuous use of their physical abilities.

"Consider the plight of the best-known fellow in town—the average man."

He realizes that being physically fit is a good thing, and naturally wants to keep in trim.

"But exercise sounds like

State Status--

Simon Building Campaign Staff

By JERRY OWENS

Copley News Service

Springfield—Chicagoan Ed Joyce, 29, is financial coordinator of the campaign with the task of overseeing all of Simon's fund-raising activities.

He works out of the Chicago campaign office.

An attorney and certified public accountant, Joyce estimates that $2 million or less will be spent on the entire campaign, through the Nov. 7 general election.

He says that Simon has recruited 50 professional persons from across the state to serve as volunteer fund-raisers for the primary campaign.

Besides heading campaign finance, Joyce handles the business administration end of the campaign. This includes paying staff persons, operating a budget and auditing books to make public disclosure easier.

Joyce has a bachelor's degree in business and a law degree from Loyola University. He graduated cum laude from law school in 1967 and edited the school's law review.

During college, he worked five years for an accounting firm. He worked for a Chicago law firm from the time he became a lawyer until he went with Simon.

Other full-time professional men in the campaign are Gene Callahan, William Schaub, William Colson and Richard Durbin.

There is one full-time professional woman, Jean Maupin, who is librarian and manager of the files.

Secretaries include Yvonne Rice in Springfield and Dolores Sidi in Chicago.

Simon and his lieutenant, governor running mate, Neil Hartigan of Chicago, are maintaining joint headquarters—in both Springfield and Chicago.

Roger Irving of Springfield, an associate superintendent in State School Dept., Michael Barakat, a Chicago attorney, and Simon part-time with fund-raising chores.

Irving takes a leave of absence about five days a month from Bakalis' office to devote attention to campaign finances.

and much more than muscular development or weight control.

"You feel good, all the way through, when you join in any of a dozen or more sports and recreational activities."

"An exciting game of volleyball or a lively swim builds a glow in your health. It is genuine good health—the kind that will stand by you when the going gets tough."

"This is what regular exercise does: it strengthens your heart, lungs and muscles; improves your circulation; and is nature's own tranquilizer."

"It does this by putting your body to work—something they don't do when you are bound to a desk all day, and flop in an easy chair all evening."

"Through sports and games you make new friends and develop new interests while you're in shape, and while you grow in spirit, mind and body."

"It doesn't matter who you are, or what you do. You can join in—and feel rich in the things that really count."

FEBRUARY 7, 1947

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers is ready to proceed immediately with construction of a canal to end navigation and flood control problems at the hazardous Chain of Rocks reach of the Mississippi River, depending on the extent of appropriations by Congress, Madison Rotarians were told by Col. Claude Kirtland, Upper Mississippi Division engineer. The canal is to separate land near Moonshen, Gabaret and Chouteau Islands from the other end of the river.

Residents of the four local municipalities have raised $4,250 in an anti-polio drive.

The FORM

PROCEDURES AFFECTING COLLECTOR EXPLAINED

To the Editor:

There has been a good deal of misconception about the elected position of tax collector in the township in regard to whether the position has become a "county employee" or discontinued altogether.

The tax collector is not a county employee and his job has not been discontinued.

Under the new Constitution of Illinois, the practice of taking "fees" out of the money collected has been outlawed. Therefore, the office of collector must be paid in another way.

In the past, the township collector of Nameoki Township received 1.5% on the first $200,000 collected and 3% on the next $1,000,000 for a total budget of $12,450.

The new system that is planned to take care of paying the tax collector's salary has been discussed in a meeting of town collectors at Edwardsville in the last week.

Under this new system, Nameoki Township must budget, in its Town Fund budget, appropriations for the collector's salary, office expenses, office help and any other expenses of tax collecting.

The township will not levy a tax for these expenses, however, because the county will give the township "grants" payable out of the general county fund.

A budget of $21,000 has been set for this purpose, but this may need to be increased to take care of 5% salary increases for collectors.

This will indeed inflate the township budget and cause many to be concerned, however, the cost of collection will remain almost the same as in the past—except that the collector will not be indicted for not handing as in the past and must submit his expenditures to the Town Board for approval.

The township treasurer will then be responsible for paying the bills.

The township collector is not out of a job. He is an elected township officer and chairman of Nameoki until April 1973, when he must run again.

SAYS SUPERVISOR WANTS BAD IMAGE FOR VILLAGE

To the Editor:

We have gone through a rough time in the past several months in the Pontoon Beach area.

We have been harassed, downgraded and insulted by persons who have assumed that assassination of the village's character could gain political favor in areas that supported the current township supervisor in the past township elections.

The Pontoon Beach electors refused this support.

The shame of it all is that, after all the wild accusations of syndicated gamblers, professional prostitution and widespread use of narcotics, the Grand Jury saw fit to return one indictment against one village official, myself.

I accept this challenge to my integrity and will answer to the township Board of Supervisors. My resentment stems from the fact that all the news items published have afflicted this technical indictment with the six other indictments issued to those who gambled their own political future against the future of their community.

I am an old Harry Truman Democrat.

I believe that "if you don't stand the heat, then get out of kitchen."

Let me know if I am wrong, but I don't think my community along with those who would destroy it.

I implore you, readers, don't confuse the one indictment against me with the many other indictments against our accusers.

I love my village and my people.

ROACH ACTIVE, HONEST, SABLED BOARD MEMBER

To the Editor:

It is a pleasure to say a few words to the voters of Granite City in support of the candidacy of Carl Roach for County Board member.

I've known Carl for something more than twenty years and would have to call him one of the most trustworthy and hardworking men I have ever met.

He is a dedicated supporter of his church, an outstanding sportsman, a member of the American Legion, a completely dependable member of his chosen fraternal order and a 35-year member of the Granite City Board of Supervisors.

Possibly of even greater importance is his record of service in his previous nine years of service on the Madison County Board of Supervisors.

He has a perfect record of board meeting attendance and a 100% attendance record for his committee meetings. In addition to attending meetings, he has worked hard at effectively discharging the responsibilities assigned him.

Carl is retired and able to give a large amount of time to the community.

While some people might think retired people are out of the mainstream, they can do a life and not really fit in with governmental leaders, nothing like that.

Reynolds-Potter Wedding At St. John's Lutheran

The wedding of Miss Terry Irene Potter, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Thomas Potter, 2521 Pine St., and Lieutenant Michael Reynolds, U.S. Army, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds of Worden, Ill., took place at 7:15 p.m. Saturday at St. John Lutheran Church.

Simlas and greenery decorated the altar rail before the Rev. Samuel Bode performed the candlelight ceremony. Miss Barbara Azari, a cousin of the bride, was the candlebearer.

For her wedding, the former Miss Potter chose a gown of ivory tulle with a full skirt and a high Victorian neckline of lace. Lace extended into a front panel on the bodice and formed a decorative panel on the A-line skirt.

Scalloped lace edged the hemline and cuffs of the long full skirt. The bodice was encrusted with white satin ribbon.

A total look, lace-trimmed mantilla veil of illusion terminated in a full sweep train, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with white gardenias.

Miss Heather Potter, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Sharon Azari, the bride's cousin, and Miss Cindy Kinsman served as bridesmaids.

They were gownwed alike in aqua and purple print voile. The formal length dresses were designed with white linen bands at the round necklines forming a yoke on the bodice and encircling the waist. The long, full sleeves of sheer print fabric were cuffed in matching white tulle.

Each attendant wore a band of fresh flowers and stephanotis in her hair and carried a nosegay of white carnations centered with turquoise poms. The honor attendant's bouquet had a mark blue pom on center.

Andrea Reynolds, the groom's niece, presented the wedding guests with packets of rice as they arrived at the church.

Larry Reynolds, a brother of the groom, was his best man, serving with Jan Giecho and Robert Kober as groomsmen. Gene Potter, a brother of the bride, and Al Hyman seated the guests.

More than 200 guests were received by the bride couple at a reception held at Long Lake Fire Hall immediately following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mass., the newly married couple will make their home in this area.

The bride, a 1967 graduate of Granite City High School, is a senior student at Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing, St. Louis, from where she will graduate June 10.

Lt. Reynolds is a graduate of Granite City Public Schools and SIU-Carbondale where he majored in business. He is presently stationed in Boston, Mass., with the U.S. Army.

Scuba Divers Ball At Venice Legion

The second annual "Valentine's Ball," sponsored by the Granite City Bubblemasters Scuba Diving Club, will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Venice-Madison American Legion Hall, 740 Broadway, Venice. (The public is invited to attend.)

Proceeds from the affair will be used to purchase diving compressor equipment to be used by the Civil Defense Unit. Refreshments will be served in advance from club members or at the door Saturday. John Schmitt and the Jokers will play for dancing.

MIRIAM TOPIC OF PEACE CIRCLE

"Miriam," the sister of Moses, was the topic of a lesson given by Miss Katherine Van Order at a meeting Thursday night of the Peace Circle of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Members met in the home of Mrs. Emma Schoen, 1826 Ferguson Ave.

Miss Virginia Segar, leader, presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Ruth Johnston.

The group will meet in March with Miss Nelle Hart, 2806 Iowa St.

WELCOME WAGON CLUB WILL MEET TOMORROW

The Welcome Wagon Club will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the YMCA. All women new to this area may attend, and those needing transportation may call the Welcome Wagon hostesses, Mrs. Joanna Spencer, 876-8714, or Mrs. Ruth Bischoff, 876-2595.

Met Opera Auditions at SIU-SW Thursday

Metropolitan Opera auditions for young singers in 35 southern counties of Illinois will be held at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus Thursday from 1 to 5 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

The public is invited, admission free. "This is an opportunity for the public to hear future opera stars and to encourage the young singers," William Tarwater, chairman of the music department at SIU-SW, said.

Forty-nine auditions have been accepted. Tarwater reported.

Winners of the contest at SIU-SW will compete against other district audition winners at regional auditions in Chicago March 13-14. Chicago winners will go to New York for the national semi-finals on April 9.

At SIU-SW, winners of the local campus were Linda Rolfs and Tom Collins of St. Louis, students of SIU-SW, and Linda Moore, and Linda Hodge of Belleville, a pupil of former Met star Marjorie Lawrence, now at SIU-Carbondale. Miss Hodge placed third in the Chicago auditions.

Judges of the Met auditions at SIU-SW this year are Edwin Blanchard, professor of voice at Bradley University, and Sydney Murray and Ethel Closson Smith, voice professor at Indiana State University.

All three are officials of the National Association of Teachers of Singing. They will select three winners for cash prizes of $75, $50 and $35 each and judge those qualified to compete in Chicago.

The Edwardsville auditions are sponsored by SIU-SW and the SIU-SW Friends of Music. Chairman are Mrs. David Simpson of Edwardsville, president.

During the afternoon Thursday members of the Mu Phi Epsilon women's honorary music fraternity, will assist the friends at a reception in the lobby of the Communications Building.

Nicholas Charged With Violating Silence Order

Demo Nicholas of the Madison County Sheriff's Department, will appear at a hearing at 1 p.m. tomorrow in circuit court to answer charges that he discussed the William Wells Brown case publicly, despite a court order that the matter not be discussed.

Nicholas allegedly answered questions about the case at a meeting of the Wood River Woman's Club Jan. 11. Chief Judge Michael Kinney of the court issued orders forbidding discussion of the murder case Jan. 6.

Auto Overtures

Cynthia Woolbright, 20, of Edwardsville, was injured when her small foreign auto overturned five times on Route 157 near Glen Carbon at 6 p.m. Thursday. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and transferred to Centralia for treatment.

Two Injured as Car Crashes into Fireplug

Two women were injured when the car of Ivory C. Sample, East St. Louis, westbound on Third Street at West Washington Avenue, Madison, went out of control and struck a fireplug at 12:25 a.m. yesterday.

Lucille Howell and Rena Johnson of 126 Lee Wright Homes, both passengers in the car, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they were treated for head injuries and released.

SIU Dental School Dean To Attend Conference

Dr. Frank Sobkowski, dean of the School of Dental Medicine at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, will attend the Dental Educators and Examiners Conference Friday and Saturday in Chicago.

The conference is being sponsored by the American Association of Dental Schools and the American Association of Dental Examiners to keep members abreast of what both organizations are doing in the field of dental medicine. Sobkowski will be joined by Dr. Edwin Dale, assistant to the dean for administration. Several faculty members also may attend.

Soft Set Ablaze in Old Cemetery Area

Granite City firemen extinguished a blaze at 4:15 p.m. Saturday in the cemetery area of the Kirkpatrick Homes where they found a sofa on fire. Firemen also responded to an alarm at Herring Florist, 2700 Madison Ave., at 11:15 a.m. Saturday, after smoke was detected coming from a furnace at Terminal Avenue and Maryville Road at 12:35 p.m. Saturday.

1972 Census of Transportation Gets Under Way

The first phase of the 1972 Census of Transportation, the National Travel Survey, got underway last week with the mailing of the first of 24,000 questionnaires to households in selected areas throughout the United States by the Census Bureau, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce's Social and Economic Statistics Administration (SESA).

The Census of Transportation is one of a number of censuses, called the Economic Censuses, now taken in the years ending in "2" and "7", which measure the Nation's business and industrial activities. Other activities covered are business (retail and wholesale trade, services, industry (manufacturing and mining), construction and commercial fishing. The first Travel Survey was taken in 1965 as part of the first Census of Transportation and a second was taken in 1967.

The questionnaires will go out in three mailings. The first mailing will go out this week, the second in early February and the remainder in early April. The groups of families in the survey will be selected at 15-month intervals throughout the year about their travels both at home and abroad.

Variety of Questions
The Census of Transportation is concerned primarily with the movement of people and goods. The National Travel Survey portion of the census asks questions on the number and kinds of trips 100 miles or more away from home that were made by household members. Some of the questions asked include: purpose of the trips, overnight accommodations, nights away from home and point of travel.

Information collected in the census will be published as seasonal travel data and as a profile of travel for 1972. First results of the Travel Survey will be published in December.

Data collected in the National Travel Survey have wide applications for both private industry and government. A large number of Americans are employed in the transportation and allied industries. The amount of travel, the accommodations used by the travelers, and other related factors affect these workers and in turn the entire economy. The information obtained will be used by government and private agencies in planning the improvement of highways, airports, railway stations, and other transportation facilities, as well as restaurants, hotels, motels, recreation areas and the like.

Cooperation in the census is required by law. The law also protects those required to fill out questionnaires by prohibiting the Census Bureau from disclosing any information about a household or household member. The data obtained may be used only to compile statistical totals.

Services Held For Andrew Lisac, 57

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Madison. Andrew Lisac, 57, of 2009 Maryville Road, who died Thursday, was buried in Calvary Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rose M. (Kranovich) Lisac, his mother, Mrs. Carol Carter, Miss Andrea Lisac and Carl Andrew Lisac, all of Granite City; three half-brothers, Joseph Obravovich of Hammond, Ind., Michael Obravovich of Wichita Falls, Tex., and John Obravovich of Madison; a half sister, Mrs. John (Katherine) Narancich of St. Louis; his mother, Mrs. Ruby Obravovich of Granite City, and two grandchildren.

Stolen Payroll Check Cashed at Local Store

A stolen payroll check for $159.73 was cashed by a woman at a local store who purchased $20 worth of groceries at Champion's Merchandise and Food Mart, 2206 Pontoon Road, about noon Saturday, it was reported by Mrs. Frank Champron, owner of the store.

The woman, who was about 25 years old, wore a beige knit hat and glasses. The check, reported stolen from Western Auto Supply Co. of Fallon, Mo., was drawn on the First National Bank of St. Louis and made payable to an East Alton woman.

Mrs. Champron said the Western Auto firm reported the check had been stolen and the address on the check was fictitious.

'Modes of Modern Dance' At SIU-SW Thursday

The 7th annual production of "Modes of Modern Dance" will be held Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building Theater at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern. The performance is open to the public free of charge.

Variations in modern dance will be performed by students from Principia College, SIU's Performing Arts Training Center in East St. Louis, and the dance theater group on the Edwardsville campus, according to Aline Wiltz, co-director of the performance. He is an assistant professor in the speech and theater department.

Ceremony to Honor Miss Janet Patterson

Miss Janet Patterson of the Office of Veterans Affairs will receive a flag staff and stand in her office at the Granite City hall at 2 p.m., today as a token of appreciation from the members of Barracks 34, Veterans of World War One.

Raymond Scott, commander of Barracks 34, said "We feel Miss Patterson's services to veterans far exceeds the normal routine of her job. She is always ready and willing to help us in any way."

Vehicles Collide

The eastbound pickup truck of Mary B. Whitaker, 2316 Logan St., and the southbound car of John W. Woodward, 2636 North St., collided at West 24th Street and Dewey Avenue at 3:10 p.m. Thursday.

4 Hurt; Driver Charged In Madison Mishap

Four people were hurt and the driver of an auto was ticketed in an accident at 1:45 p.m. Saturday at Third Street and McCambridge Avenue in Madison.

William J. Brown, 2329 Bryan Ave., was charged with careless driving after his north-bound auto struck a car operated by Mrs. Pauline Hodge of St. Louis, which was halted on McCambridge waiting to turn left into Third Street.

Brown, 32, who sustained several injuries, was admitted at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He underwent X-rays of the skull. Mrs. Hodge, 35, complained of pain in the right arm and had X-rays taken before being released. Mrs. Sara Wilkerson, also of St. Louis, a passenger, complained of pain in the neck and back and had a series of X-rays taken. She was released. Linda Hodge, 14, the daughter of the driver, also sustained injuries, police said.

Norman Kinder New President Of Tri-City Bar

Norman H. Kinder, Jr., a partner in the law firm of Kinder, Scroggins and Kinder, with offices at Namekoi Road and Lincoln Avenue, was elected president of the Tri-City Bar Association last week at the organization's monthly meeting at Charlie's restaurant.

William J. Matyska, Jr., was elected vice-president and Alan Walker, treasurer. Both men are local attorneys.

Paul Welch, Collinsville, was elected secretary.

Kinder graduated from St. Louis University Law School in 1963 and began his legal career as a law clerk for a United States District Judge in Springfield.

He has practiced law in the Tri-Cities since 1965.

Kinder is a member of the Madison County Bar Association, the National Methodist Church and is a past president of the Parents' Committee for Special Education.

He is active in the Boy Scouts of America, serving as a member of the "Columbia Mound Council Activities Committee." He also is chairman of the Boy Scout Leaders' Appreciation dinner to be held Feb. 19 at the Granite City High School cafeteria.

He and his wife Norma have one son, Norman, 7.

The Tri-City Bar Association is comprised of 50 attorneys from the area that meet each month to exchange ideas and keep each other informed of developments in the legal profession.

Driver Injured; Faces Carelessness Charge

Gary L. Ingham, 1218 Edwardsville Road, was charged with careless driving after the eastbound auto he was driving struck and damaged a parked car owned by Everett H. Flom, 1854 Edwardsville Road, Madison, parked outside the address at 6:45 p.m. Saturday.

Ingham, 27, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he complained of chest pains and a series of X-rays were taken and an EKG test. He was treated and released.

Break Into Car

Theft broke into the auto of Gilbert Ellis, 706 Twenty-Eighth Place, stealing a precision side rule and a small suitcase containing books, the owner reported at 10:50 p.m. Friday. Contents of the suitcase were dumped onto the street nearby, where the books and case were recovered sometime later.

Hubert Adams, 66, Dies; Ill 8 Weeks

Hubert James Adams, 66, of 2615 East 25th St., father of Donald G. Adams, president of the Granite City Glass Co., died at 5:15 a.m. Friday, at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis. He had been ill for eight weeks and a patient at the hospital for the same length of time.

A resident of Granite City for 24 years, he was born in Stewart County, Tenn.

Mr. Adams was a member of Tri-City Park Tabernacle, the United Steelworkers and Masonic Triple Lodge 535.

He retired three years ago from Laclede Steel where he had been employed 21 years as a crane man.

Other than his son he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alene Adams, another son, James Adams of Detroit, Mich.; three daughters, Mrs. Jack (Sara) Dempsey, Mrs. Charles (Betty J.) Miles, both of Granite City, and Mrs. Henry (Thelma) Gleaves of Nashville, Tenn.; two sisters, Mrs. Harry (Lois) Dorch of Granite City and Mrs. Ely (Pauline) Manners of Tennessee; a brother, Glenn Adams of Granite City; 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Sister Cornelia Is Reassigned

Sister Mary Cornelia Hawkins, a member of the Sisters of Divine Providence, has been granted a transfer out of the Granite City area "for health reasons."

Census, Housing Facts Given in U.S. Report

Basic 1970 census population data; John Corbett Jr., 1636 E. Day Park; Elia Jean Neal, 209 E. Main St., and the Press-Record sought a transfer to a warmer climate for medical reasons.

She declined to say where the new assignment would be, but said she would like to return here eventually.

Sister Cornelia was suspended from her police duties by the Pontoon Beach village board Jan. 13 in the wake of a grand jury investigation into civil activities.

The board's police committee said she had violated rules requiring her to discuss complaints about the police with the chief of police, Jim Denham, before taking the complaints to a higher authority.

The nun was among those who attended a meeting to air complaints to the grand jury foreman prior to the start of the investigation. She said last week that charges were "ridiculous and untrue" and she thought of the number of times in the chief's office with complaints.

The data are shown for each of the urbanized area's blocks and also are summarized for each city and community of 2,500 people or more in the urbanized area.

Block statistics are used by a wide variety of analysts—planners, marketers, and officials of both private and government groups—as a research tool.

Copies of the report, HC(3)-137, can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402 or from any U. S. Department of Commerce field office. The price is $1 per copy.

Simon 'Made No Compromises' to Get Support of Party Organization

By LT. GOV. PAUL SIMON

Frequently, young people ask me, "What should I study if I want a career in politics? How can I prepare myself if I want to get into active political life?"

And sometimes concerned parents will add, "Isn't moral compromise an essential part of the political scene?"

The answer to the questions about career is that almost any career can be the entrance into political life. Look at a City Council or County Board and you will see people of great education and those with limited; you will find teachers, farmers and retired persons.

In the legislature of a state or in Congress, there is a wide variety of professions—but more are lawyers than from any other single profession.

Among the state candidates endorsed by the political leaders of their party this year, here are the professions:

Senate candidates: Charles Percy, businessman; Roman Pucinski, journalist.

Governor: Richard Ogilvie, lawyer; Paul Simon, journalist.

Lieutenant Governor: James Nowlan, teacher; Neil Hartigan, lawyer.

Secretary of State: Edmund Kucharski, government worker.
